CITY OIL REFINERY OPERATING IN JULY

Crude distillation unit of the Edmonton oil refinery will be operating at partial capacity early in the summer E. S. Davis, resident engineer for Imperial Oil, said Wednesday in commenting on a report from Sarnia that July would be the opening date.

Mr. Davis pointed out that this was only the first operation of the refining process.

It is hoped that crude distillation plant will be operating at full capacity of 6,000 barrels per day by October.

Next portion of the refinery to start operations will be the cracking plant where crude fractions from the distillation unit are given further treatment. It is not until this plant is under way that gasoline from Leduc crude will be produced in full quantity.

East-of-the-Curtain Submarines Sighted Off American Shores

U.S. Secretary Asks Stronger Sea Force

WASHINGTON, March 25. — (AP) — Navy Secretary John L. Sullivan told senators today that "recently submarines not belonging to any nation west of the 'Iron Curtain' have been sighted off our shores."

Although Sullivan named no names, Russia is the only country behind the Iron Curtain known to have any submarine fleet.

Testifying to the Senate armed service committee, Sullivan said:

Similar German Move

"I am not prepared to evaluate the significance of these sightings. However, we all recall that an early step of the Germans in 1917 and 1941 was to deploy submarines off our coasts."

Sullivan was before the committe to ask for a stronger navy as part of the administration's "stop Communism" drive.

He said Russia had obtained 10 new German submarines, four of them of the latest wartime design.

Soviet Protest Is Rejected

LONDON, March 25.—(AP)—Britain today rejected Russia's protest against the Anglo-United States-French negotiations for rebuilding Western Germany's economy.

A firm note to the Soviet government said Great Britain wished "entirely to repudiate the accusations" made by Russia that the negotiations violated the Potsdam agreement.

The note blamed Russia for the breakdown of four-power co-operation for restoring Germany's economic unity.

"In the opinion of His Majesty's government," it said, "responsibility for the frustration of their consistent attempts to promote the greatest possible extent practical co-operation in Germany, directed to the economic recovery and unity of that country . . . rests clearly upon the Soviet government.

BLOCKED BY SOVIET

"The refusal of the Soviet government to allow those conditions to exist in Germany which are essential for the well-being of Europe has been amply demonstrated by their actions in the control council and the council of foreign ministers and in all aspects of the political and economic discrimination in the Soviet-occupied zone."

Marshall Backs Clay on Germany

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(AP)—State Secretary Marshall served notice today that the United States will look on further Russian refusal to co-operate in the Allied Control Council for Germany as "aimed against the unification of Germany."

He did this with a press conference statement which also:

Threw the full weight of American prestige behind Gen. Lucius D. Clay's fight to keep Allied machinery in Germany running and behind Clay's determination to remain in Berlin.

Flyers Rout Stampeders To Capture League Title

Best Effort Shown For 6-2 Triumph

By Stan Moher
Bulletin Sports Editor

Champions . . .

A three-year quest ended at the Arena Wednesday night as Flyers walloped Calgary Stampeders 6-2 to win the Western Canada Hockey League crown.

It was the fourth victory for the locals in six tries, with a tie thrown in for good measure. Flyers' series triumph was one of the more decisive in the history of the modern Western loop and fully avenged the setback suffered by the Edmonton squad at the hands of the Stamps in the league finals, season 1945-46.

In the opinion of many of the 7,000 and more fans who cheered themselves hoarse as the game went its course Flyers put the battling Stampeders down for keeps with their best effort of the season.

Bill Maher, Doug Anderson and Freddy Smiten, each with two goals, took care of the scoring for the win-hungry Curriemen. But more than anything else last night's win was a team effort all the way.

RAMPAGING OIL WELL DEFIES "KILL" EFFORTS

"I wish we knew" was the reply of a leading Edmonton oil man when asked how long it was going to take to subdue Atlantic No. 3. Approximately 2,000 bags of heavy cement have been forced into the hole at five hour intervals over a period of two days with little effect.

Where the cement is going is a question to which no one can provide a positive answer.

The cement used is mixed with Aquagel, a heavy mud, to give it weight.

The mixture is disappearing down the hole with so little effect that it is felt a new method will have to be attempted. What this will be had not been decided Thursday morning.

Atlantic No. 3 began to blow gas up through the ground surrounding the derrick Sunday afternoon.

Since that time crews have worked day and night to kill the well that rampaged for 39 hours two weeks ago.

Collective Pacts Replace Industrial Standard Schedule

CALGARY, March 25.—(CP)—The industrial standards schedule governing the working conditions of employees of the cartage and warehouse distributing industry was revoked Wednesday afternoon by unanimous decision of representatives of the Teamsters' union and four Calgary trucking firms.

A motion revoking the schedule was passed unanimously by Bob Scott, business agent of the Teamsters' Union, AFL, representing the employes, and representatives of Dench of Canada Ltd., Johns-n Cartage and Storage Co. Ltd., the Pacific Cartage and Storage Co. Ltd., and the Quick Delivery Co.

Working conditions in the Calgary zone will henceforth be governed by collective agreements between the employes and employer.

Government Asked To Take Over All B.C. Race Tracks

VICTORIA, March 25.—(CP)—Arthur J. Turner (CCF-Vancouver East) advocated in the British Columbia legislature Wednesday that the B.C. government take over all race tracks in the province and set up a racing commission.

He said the B.C. Turf and Country Club Ltd., was largely an American institution "out for blood" and determined to make the government suzrender.

The club recently closed Lansdowne and Brighouse tracks in Vancouver because it claimed racing was "taxed to death" in British Columbia.

Baby Instantly Killed by Tractor

RED DEER, March 24—(CP)—Norma Jean Bower, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bower, was instantly killed at her farm home one mile southeast of here Wednesday when she was run over by a tractor driven by her father. The child is believed to have run behind the tractor while Bower was moving it backwards.

SPRING FLOODS PROVE MENACE IN ALTA. AREAS

Danger of spring floods is looming in central Alberta.

Recent heavy snowfalls in that area have increased the danger and prospects of a sudden swing to much milder weather makes spring floods a growing menace.

Abnormal depths of snow blanket the area from Coronation west to the mountains. The cold snap during the last few days will probably make the eventual warmer weather more pronounced.

Play-Off Series Dates Not Set

No definite date had been set up to press time Thursday afternoon for commencement of the playoff series between Edmonton Flyers and the winners of Kimberley-Trail.

It had been anticipated the opening game would be on the home ice of the B.C. champions March 27, but this appeared doubtful Wednesday night.

An announcement by Al Pickard, CAHA president, is expected some time today.

Caution Is Advised In Stock Transactions

Recent fluctuations in gold mining stock is believed partly responsible for flood of promotion deals in oils.

G. M. Blackstock, in charge of enforcing Alberta's securities regulations said today in Calgary a "flood" of mail and long-distance telephone calls is pouring into Alberta.

Edmonton-reaction to the statement today was that it is a "timely warning."

Belief is that majority of schemes being promoted are sound but there are bound to be a few "shady" deals mixed in.

Increased interest is believed to have resulted from announcement that Imperial Oil will dispose of foreign holdings to provide capital for western development.

All solicitation in Alberta must be done by persons or institutions registered under Alberta Securities Act.

Some Ontario brokers and salesmen are believed to be soliciting in Alberta without this registration. One comment said Ontario Security regulations are very flexible and enforcement not strict.

U.S. Is Urged Bolster Forces

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(AP) —Top military leaders of the United States asked Congress today for an immediate expansion of the armed services and the drafting of men 19 to 25 years of age.

Defence Secretary Forrestal grimly outlined the recent turn of world events in urging steps to make United States military might match that of Communist Russia.

As Forrestal spoke President Truman told his press conference he can't estimate yet how many additional billions of dollars his revised defence program will cost.

Forrestal said the odds still favor peace and the free countries of the world.

But he asked Congress to approve immediately:

1. An increase in the present authorized strength of army, navy, marine and air force manpower by 349,500 officers and men.

ADDITIONAL CASH

2. Another $3,000,000,000 in cash and contract authority for the armed services to cover this expansion. This presumably would be in addition to $11,000,000,000 already in the budget.

3. Drafting by selective service of men from 19 to 25 years inclusive. He said this would provide 1,355,000 men but added that only about 220,000 probably would be taken. He estimated 530,000 probably would volunteer.

4. A permanent system of universal military training which would become fully effective within three years. Forestal said this would provide some 630,000 men each year with basic training.

More Snow, Cold Weather Outlook

No immediate let up in cold weather prevailing over Edmonton region is in sight.

Seven-tenths of an inch of snow fell during a 24-hour period prior to 9 o'clock this morning and more snow is forecast for today. It is expected to fall until after midnight tonight.

Continued low temperatures are also expected. High temperature in Edmonton Wednesday was only 14 above and over-night low was seven above. Mercury is expected to climb slightly higher today, estimated high being 18 above.

Edmonton, however, was one of the favored spots on the prairies. Heavy snow storm passed over southern and central Alberta Wednesday but worst part of it never reached Edmonton. Early this morning it hit Saskatoon where four inches of snow fell.

'Pay-As-You-Go' City Policy Is Abandoned

The "pay-as-you-go" policy of civic financing that has been in operation for more than a decade is passing into history.

City Commissioner John Hodgson, at a special meeting of council considering estimates, told aldermen that 1948 extensions to the utilities would be capitalized to the extent of $3,000,000.

This statement was made following Robert Christie's reply to an aldermen that "reserves being set aside in the telephone department would be insufficient to meet capital expenditures requirements."

COUNCIL MEETING

Capital estimates for the five utilities and the city engineer's department will be considered at a meeting of council to be held Monday at 4:30 p.m.

It is expected the mill rate for 1948 will be struck at this meeting.

Aldermen gave approval to the utilities operational estimates which called for expenditures of $7,833,224 with revenue estimated at $8,481, 811.

Actual expenditures in 1947 totaled $7,434,042 and revenue $8,

Truman Asks Truce Talks

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(AP) —President Truman said today he has instructed Warren Austin, United States United Nations representative, to call Arabs and Jews into a truce conference to halt bloodshed in Palestine.

He read to reporters a prepared statement saying a truce must be reached between the Arabs and the Jews "if we are to avert tragedy in Palestine."

Unless something was done "open warfare is just over the horizon."

LAKE SUCCESS, March 25.—(AP)—Arab and Jewish spokesmen stood their ground today in their first comments on President Truman's call for a truce.

Faris El Khoury, of Syria, chief Arab spokesman at the United Nations, said it was his opinion that the Arabs would be ready to avoid any move to disturb the peace if the Jews will agree to abandon partition and find another solution of the Palestine problem.

A spokesman for Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, chairman of the American section of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, reminded newsmen that Silver told the Security Council the partition of Palestine is the "irreducible minimum" the Jews will accept.

Dr. Chaim Qeizmann said the recent American decision to abandon partition can lead only to increased bloodshed.

He said the new United States policy constitutes appeasement of Arab aggression and called on the Jewish people to stand firmly behind the United Nations partition plan.

Wrecked Sealers Hunted by Plane

HALIFAX, March 25.—(CP)—A searching RCAF Canso with relief supplies aboard prodded through blinding snow flurries over Cabot strait, between Cape Breton and Newfoundland, early this afternoon in search for 21 crew members of the Magdalen Islands sealing schooner Teazer. The men abandoned ship in Belle Isle today when an ice pack crushed and splintered their vessel.

The men are huddled on the tearing ice jam hoping their distress signal, sent out before they abandoned the sealer, has been heard.

Unknown to them the signal was picked up by the RCAF here and a search and rescue Canso with emergency supplies is on its way from here.

Meanwhile the ice-breaker Saurel also is steaming to the rescue from North Sydney.

The crew of the rescue plane will drop sleeping bags, tents, rations and survival equipment for use of the shipwrecked sealing men until the Saurel arrives.

Italy Is Ready To Discuss Trieste

By J. EDWARD MURRAY

ROME, March 25.—(BUP)—The foreign office announced today that Italy was ready to open direct negotiations with Yugoslavia on Trieste within the spirit and letter of the American-British-French proposal to return the free state to this country.

An official spokesman said the Italian government's view was that until the Trieste problem was settled, a constitutive peace between Italy and Yugoslavia would be impossible.

TRIESTE, March 25.—(AP)—British soldiers moved up closer to the Yugoslav border line in Trieste territory last night and dug machinegun positions for road blocks.

Maj.-Gen. Terence S. Airey, British chief civil affairs officer, said more British soldiers are being advanced to the frontier as a precaution.

City Gamblers "Take Cover" As Police Start Clean-Up

Edmonton gamblers have gone into hiding.

Chief Constable Reg Jennings' warning to investigate rumors of gambling and bootlegging activities in Edmonton has driven alleged bookies and bootleggers under cover.

Detective Sergeant W. A. Smith, head of the city police morality squad, reported today that a survey Wednesday had failed to uncover any evidence of bookmaking in downtown beverage taverns.

Detective Smith said "gambling joints in the city would be closed tight."

"I'm investigating all reports of gambling or bootlegging and these in any form will be disposed of," he added.

He denied knowledge of "runners' operating for bookies in local beverage taverns but added, "to the best of our skill and ability we'll take steps to eradicate this if it exists."

Smith admitted knowledge of eight bookies establishments.

"It's difficult to pin the goods on them, but we'll make the rounds and woe betide anyone we nab," he added.

Smith threatened to take steps to have phones cancelled by anyone allowing bookie agents to use them.

"Action of this nature curbed gambling activities several years ago," he said.

"We know some taxi drivers take the risk of bootlegging when the opportunity presents itself and it's not easy to catch them. Nor is it a cinch to nab those who operate out of private homes. But we'll investigate and lead and take the proper action," he added.

PROUD OF RECORD

Proud of his staff's record of 803 arrests for breaches of morality and fines totalling $14,795 on convictions as well as jail terms for more serious offenders in the past year, Smith said, "We've kept things at a low ebb for some time. If they are getting out of line, it's my job to see they are put in their place and that's what I intend to do."

Smith's statement followed a previous report by Chief Constable Reg Jennings' intentions to fully investigate gambling and bootlegging rumors and to crack down on offenders.

DO THEY GO NEXT? THEY PROTEST

Harassed Housewives Worried About Potatoes

When do they take the potatoes?

Edmonton housewives today are protesting the announcement of wholesalers that cabbage and carrots will not be imported under present price ceilings.

Carrots and cabbage are the only two vegetables which can be brought in from U.S. under present import restrictions.

A survey of local housewives today indicated that the government restrictions on imports should be lifted.

Reasons given for the opinions varied.

"When are they going to take the potatoes away from us?" asked one woman.

Said another: "I don't think it is necessary for us to go without green vegetables. We can't keep healthy without them. I think the government should lift the ban on fresh vegetables."

A second woman also mentioned the health factor, "Green vegetables were supposed to be necessary during the war," she said, "so they should still be necessary."

United Housewives of Alberta are organizing a campaign to ask government to lift the ban on all fresh vegetables.

"I have spoken to a lot of storekeepers and consumers recently," said UHA president Mrs. Bea Swanky, "and they all feel the ban on importing of other vegetables is unjust."

Excise Tax Bill Survives Attacks

Rocky Passage Completed Through House of Commons

By George Kitchen

OTTAWA, March 25.—(CP)—The government's excise bill completed a rocky passage through the Commons Wednesday by withstanding three vigorous opposition attempts to defeat it.

In a fighting, last-ditch stand against the legislation, which they termed illegal and unconstitutional, the Progressive Conservative and CCF parties moved three defeat-spelling amendments to the bill and saw them all rejected by the government majority in votes which set the division bells ringing through the house.

The votes were:

1. 71 to 57 against a Progressive Conservative motion to shelve the legislation for six months—a parliamentary device which automatically ensures its defeat. This motion came on second reading, which signifies approval of the principle of the bill.

2. 70 to 54 to support Speaker Gaspard Fauteux in a decision ruling out of order a CCF motion that the bill not be read a third time but that the House express the opinion that the government had acted without constitutional authority in imposing the tax.

COMBINED OPPOSITION

In each of those contests, the government faced 'he combined opposition of the Progressive Conservative, CCF and Social Credit parties.

The bill gives statutory authority to the 25-per-cent excise tax announced and imposed in the Nov. 18 dollar-saving austerity program and applying to a long list of consumer goods.

The opposition fight against the legislation stems from the fact the tax was imposed while Parliament was prorogued. Opposition speakers, delving into history to support their argument, have contended that the tax, thus imposed without the consent of Parliament, was illegal and unconstitutional.

Finance Minister Abbott, its sponsor and main supporter in the government ranks, likened his announcement of the levy by radio Nov. 18 to the budget practice of announcing taxes budget night and obtaining parliamentary approval of them at a later date.

BRANDED ILLEGAL

M. J .Coldwell, CCF leader, branded the government's actions as "illegal from every historical point of view" and said Parliament should make an "effective and dramatic" formal protest against what had been done. z

A. L. Smith (PC-Calgary West) predicted the tax would lead to unemployment and termed it unconstitutional.

Solon Low, Social Credit leader, said the government had failed to investigate the alternative of increasing production to right the country's adverse trade balance

Cadets to Get New Uniforms

OTTAWA, March 25. —(CP)— Cadets of Royal Military College, Kingston, and HMCS Royal Roads, at Esquimalt, B.C., will appear next fall in smartly-tailored new uniforms common to both colleges, it was announced yesterday.

The uniforms are patterned after the pre-war RMC model but will not include the famous "pill box" hat. They will be navy blue with new gilt "Canadian services colleges" buttons. Each cadet will have an Oxford grey greatcoat and cape, and will wear a navy blue field service wedge cap with chin strap.

GET NEW ISSUE

In the case of Royal Roads, navy and air force cadets now attending will continue to wear their present uniforms until leaving that college. All new cadets, including army cadets who will enter Royal Roads for the first time next fall, will receive the new uniform.

Cadets of the three services will receive the new uniform when they report to RMC which opens next September.

New colors for both colleges will be dark blue, red, and light blue, replacing the old RMC red and white and the Royal Roads blue and white. The tie and belt, worn with recreational dress of grey flannels and blue blazer, will be of those colors.

Czechs to Try Ex-Deputy

By ALVIN STEINKOPF

PRAGUE, March 25.—(AP)—Czechoslovakia's Communist government will try former Deputy Premier Jan Ursiny on charges of aiding spies for western powers, the interior ministry announced yesterday.

Ursiny, a Slovak Democrat, will be the first of several former high office holders to face hearings, the announcement said. The trial will take place before the newly reorganized supreme court of Slavokia at Bratislava.

The interior ministry charged that Ursiny had used his office in the pre-Communist government to aid a ring of agents operating in Slovakia as distant as Argentina and Sweden. Otto Ghuch, Ursiny's secretary, will be tried with him.

The interior ministry also said investigation of an espionage plot in January at the city of Most has involved a number of other suspects. Capt. Josef Kraka of the Czechoslovak Army staff already has been sentenced to 15 years imprisonment, and Lieut. Ivan Popivic to four months.

(In Paris the Czech ambassador to France, Vindrich Nosek, announced he had resigned as a protest of recent events in his country.)

Count de Marigny Has Voluntarily Left Dominion

OTTAWA, March 25.—(CP)—Count Alfred de Marigny, whose appeal against deportation proceedings recently was rejected by the supreme court, has left Canada voluntarily, the resources department said Wednesday.

The department said "information has been received" that the former husband of Nancy Oakes, who was acquitted in Bermuda of a charge of murdering Sir Harry Oakes, left the country March 23 en route to Haiti. He is a native of the Indian Ocean island of Mauritius.

De Marigny, who came to Canada nearly three years ago and was admitted on a temporary 30-day permit, was ordered to be deported after his application to remain in Canada as an immigrant was refused.

Amusement Taxes For Municipalities

REGINA, March 25.—(CP)—Provincial Treasurer Fines said Wednesday the province would not enter pari-mutuel and amusement tax fields if the federal government relinquished them.

Commenting on an Ottawa report that the federal government might give up the two tax fields it took over during the war, Mr. Fines said they should be left to municipalities to levy and collect. The provincial government now collected pari-mutuel taxes but turned them over to municipalities concerned.

The property belonging to allied or neutral citizens was seized under the trading with the enemy act. In the case of allied countries, seizure was made when the Axis powers occupied their countries.

The figures on released property were contained in the annual report of the custodian of enemy property.

It disclosed that $218,750,000 is still held. Much of it belongs to residents of Italy, Hungary, Romania, Germany and Japan.

Dave Raitt, superintendent of the electric light system, told aldermen that lowering of the light rates had resulted in increased consumption, but the increase had not been as great as anticipated as appliances were not available. He expected a sharp upswing when electrical appliances were in full supply.

Questioned on increased cost of street lighting, Mr. Raitt told aldermen the greater number of lights in use, and their increased strength were responsible.

Robert Christie, superintendent of the telephone system, told aldermen that 4,700 new lines would be installed this year, adding that he had space in the telephone building for 10,000 lines but was unable to get the equipment.

W. R. Mount, water works superintendent, said that installations or services were well in hand, and although tile pipe was in short supply he hoped to obtain the amount necessary for 1948 operations.

Four applications were dealt with Wednesday. Their expenditure estimates totalling $464,811 compared with $458,811 in 1947 and their revenues $113,082 against $134,906 last year.

POLICE EXPENDITURES

Police expenditures for 1948 amount to $346,332 compared with $339,207, and revenue expected in this department is $37,650 against an actual $43,733 in 1947.

The recreation commission is budgeting for $45,047 in the expenditure column, and anticipates revenue of $2,000. Other year's expenditures were $40,750 and revenue $2,581.

Expenditures in the garage department this year are expected to reach $43,728 compared with $56,381 in 1947. Transfer of repair work on trolley and gasoline buses from this department to the transit system is the reason for the expenditure decline.

The purchasing department will spend an estimated $29,704 in 1947 compared with $32,211 last year. Expenses of the garage and this department are met by payments from civic departments for which services are performed.

FORCE SUFFICIENT

Police Chief Reginald Jennings told aldermen he had sufficient force at present, but would require additional staff in the near future to meet the expanding population increase.

Questioned on parking meters Chief Jennings said it would be a good idea to have a police officer make a survey of operation of these meters in centres where they are installed.

W. E. Milton, district executive officer, Canadian National Institute for the Blind, appealed for an increase in the grant made by that institution. He said that $48,000 was required for the institute's work in Alberta. An effort was being made to stabilize the institute's operating income. This called for grants from municipalities of 50c for each million dollars of assessment. He asked council to give consideration to the proposal.

The $25 proposal would mean a grant of $2,225 from the city, instead of the $500 recommended by the commissioners.

There are 180 blind persons in Edmonton receiving service from the institute, and 798 in the province.

Comics Do Not Harm Children

By ROBERT CLARKE

WINNIPEG, March 25.—(CP)—Comics, radio thrillers and the movies are never a primary cause for instability in children although they might constitute a contributory factor, a school psychologist said Wednesday.

Miss Grace Holmage, co-ordinator of the Winnipeg Child Guidance Clinic, expressed belief in an interview that there would necessarily be some "underlying reason", apart from the possible effect of such things as comics, where a youngster was faced with problems that tend to upset.

COMICS NOT BLAMED

"If a child is unstable, then that instability can be traced back further than an addiction to comics of a type that might be considered to have played a part in producing the instability," she said. "We have never had a case where it has been held that comics were responsible for the attitude of a child."

To ward off any possible ill effects of such influences, Miss Holmage suggested a well-fed controlled diet. A good home life, proper recreation and capable guidance through it were needed.

She termed recreation as "possibly the most important of all" and expressed that this should not merely participation in activities of an athletic nature but also involving an interest in hobbies, club gatherings, social groups and the like.

OLD BELIEF GONE

Teachers also had forsaken the old belief held by many that their responsibility for a pupil ended when the pupil was out of the classroom. Schools and teachers had reached the point where mental health of pupils was of concern "on a full time basis."

Dues of Mariners Fail to Cover Treatment Costs

OTTAWA, March 25.—(CP)— Sick mariners' dues paid by coasting, government and fishing vessels of Canadian registry have never met the cost of treatment of their crews, the government said yesterday.

A return tabled in the Commons gave these deficits:

1942—$41,056; 1943—$44,524; 1944—$50,036; 1945—$77,854; 1946—$63,588.

Dues paid by foreign-going vessels "more than meet" the treatment bill until 1941. Deficits since then:

1942—$32,199; 1943—$33,538; 1944—$67,740; 1945—$82,802; 1946—$87,959.

"CON" MEN USE PEPPER ON VICTIM

TORONTO March 25.—(CP) —Charles Kanichaites said yesterday he was robbed of $1,000 by two racketeers who threw pepper in his eyes and dumped him in a muddy parking lot where they had lured him on the pretext of selling him an automobile.

Police said the confidence men parked their car on downtown streets with a "For Sale" sign on the windshield to attract victims.

Kanichaites said he saw the car parked downtown and was told by a man behind the wheel who claimed to be a part owner that he wanted $2,000 cash. The prospective salesman turned down an offer of a cheque.

Kanichaites withdrew $2,000 from the bank and returned with one $1,000 bill in each pocket. A second man had appeared and offered to teach the victim to drive. The two Kanichaites got behind the wheel, one of the men, seated in the back seat threw pepper in his face and both men grabbed him and relieved him of one of his $1,000 bills.

HUMAN POLAR BEAR IN ACTION IN SOUTH

CALGARY, March 25.—(CP)—Krikor Hekimian claims the title "the human polar bear" and he proved his contention to a reporter here Wednesday afternoon by swimming around in the Bow River and lolling about on the ice eating an ice cream cone for half an hour.

Hekimian, a 33-year-old Toronto man of Armenian decent, is in Calgary to give a demonstration of his icy technique. Dressed only in white swimming trunks, he will perform in the Bow River beside the centre street bridge.

Chinese Student At Sask. University Ends Own Life

SASKATOON, March 25.—(CP)— Miss Sau-Ha Hwang, 25, a Chinese student doing graduate work in pharmacy at the University of Saskatchewan, was found dead yesterday in her room at the girls' residence.

RCMP said it appeared the girl, who came to the University from China last November on a Red Cross scholarship to take advanced work in biochemistry, had committed suicide by poisoning. Police said that in a note, addressed to faculty members, Miss Hwang indicated she did not feel she was doing as well as she could in her work.

Headingley Jail Good, No Model

WINNIPEG, March 25.—(CP)— Attorney-General James O. McLenaghen told the legislature Wednesday that while Headingley Jail is not a "model of excellence, and I never said it was", it compares favorably with any institution in Canada.

The attorney-general made the statement when answering charges by Lloyd Stinson (CCF-Winnipeg) that disturbances at the jail on three occasions some months ago had been due to overcrowding, untrained personnel and lack of facilities.

Salary Increases Are Under Study

OTTAWA, March 25.—(CP)— Speaker Gaspard Fauteux announced to the Commons Wednesday that salary increases for members of the parliamentary staff are under consideration. A decision will be announced shortly. The increases will be retroactive to last Oct. 1.

Contentious Clause Gets Senate Approval

By Douglas How

OTTAWA, March 25. — (CP) — A rebellion against potential state marketing of oats and barley ran its course among members of the Senate Wednesday from triumph to defeat.

The Senate's banking committee voted 15 to 8 to delete from a government bill to amend the Wheat Board Act a clause that would empower the board to handle sale of the coarse grains.

Later, the chamber itself voted 25 to 17 to reinsert the clause, with 10 Liberals supporting the seven Progressive Conservatives who backed the committee recommendation.

The bill was given third and final reading in the same form in which it came from the Commons. In addition to the contentious clause, it authorizes an increase in the initial wheat payment, establishes a pension fund for Wheat Board employes and empowers the board to control interprovincial movement of wheat products.

HECTIC PASSAGE

Its hectic passage through the Senate paralleled its troubles in the Commons which were climaxed when Trade Minister Howe virtually asked the Liberals to vote against the government on his motion to split the bill in two to allow separate consideration of the marketing clause.

In the Senate vote, the seven Liberals who voted against state marketing and for the committee recommendation included Senators J. P. Howden (L, Manitoba), W. A. Buchanan (L, Alberta), T. A. Crerar (L, Manitoba), and C. P. Beaubien (L, Manitoba).

LIBERAL SUPPORT

Senator John T.-Haig, Progressive Conservative leader, sparked opposition to the cause both in committee and in the chamber, but he got support from Liberals, including two former cabinet ministers, Senators Crerar and W. D. Euler.

He moved the amendment which passed on the later vote.

Senator Wishart Robertson, Liberal leader, opposed it in committee and in the chamber. The government, he said, considered it the most important clause of the bill and would reinstate it in the commons if the senate took it out.

Even with parliamentary approval, the government would want complementary legislation from the three prairie provincial legislatures and, again, would desire a reasonable degree of unanimity between western producers and eastern consumers before going ahead with the change.

The change had been inserted by the government "at the very urgent request" of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture who considered that it would benefit both producers and consumers. It would help the trend towards increasing stability of agricultural marketing.

RESERVATION PEOPLE TO GET SERVICE
Indians Finally Decide Telephones Beat Smoke
THE PAS, Man., March 25.—(CP)—Six hundred Indians on the reservation near this Northern Manitoba town have decided that smoke signals can never hope to compete with telephones.
Grocers are too apt to get their signals, or shopping lists mixed when the former method of communication is used.
Such troubles, however, soon are expected to be a thing of the past following word received here yesterday that the reservation residents may soon have both telephones and electric lights.
The new services will be possible because power lines are being extended from The Pas to the Manitoba Government Telephones' radio-telephone transmitter, located on the reservation.
The Indians are reported to be particularly interested in the telephone because it will enable them to phone in their grocery orders.
Electric lights also will be welcome, although the Indians have found oil lamps provide sufficient light as a rule.
Electricity at The Pas is provided by a diesel plant and its superintendent, G. A. Williams, said services to the Indians is possible although not considered immediate.
The power plant now is providing power outside the town limits for dairy power-milkers and cream separators, as well as motivating the nearby Grace Lake airport's radio transmitters and lights.
Neither power-milkers nor cream separators interest the Indians, but they're waking anxiously for installation of the telephones.
Grocers at The Pas say they expect a busy time.

Drilling Program On Beaulieu Gold

Milling Operations Resumed In Near Future Ciglen Says

Beaulieu-Yellowknife Mines Ltd., is continuing its exploratory diamond drilling program on properties 45 miles east of Yellowknife on Hanson Lake.

This was announced here today by Sam Ciglen, Toronto, vice-president of the company.

Mr. Ciglen was conferring here with Emil Schnee, engineer in charge of operations on the Beaulieu-Yellowknife properties.

First objective of diamond drilling this spring will be the investigation of the Easton Vein, south of proven ground for continuation of the Easton ore chute or additional chutes in that direction, Mr. Ciglen said.

RICH SAMPLES

Samples taken last fall assayed 87 ounces to the ton, the vice-president said.

First steps in this year's surface exploratory program were recommended by A. D. Hellens, consulting geologist with the company.

Milling operations, suspended because of unfavorable weather three weeks ago, will soon be resumed.

Freezing of a half-mile length of water pipe bringing water from John Lake to the mill site, interrupted operations. Repairs are now being made.

French Radio Protest Made

A resolution of protest against a French language radio station in Edmonton will be sent to federal cabinet ministers.

Members of McDougall Men's Club Wednesday voted to send protests to Hon. Lionel Chevrier, minister of Transport and Hon. James A. McKinnon, minister of fisheries.

The protest points out the French are a minority group in a province where the official language is English.

Three racial groups claim larger numbers in the province than the French, the report states.

Conclusion of report is that the station would contribute to disunity in the province.

Old China Invades City

Atmosphere of old China invaded Edmonton Building theatre for production of "Rival Peach Trees" Wednesday.

The play was presented by the Faculty of Education Drama classes of the University of Alberta.

The story of the three-act fantasy was built on the old Chinese custom of marrying princesses to the highest bidder.

Production was of top quality, costumes particularly being of remarkable wealth for an amateur production.

Acting honors for the evening went to Lucille Turcotte as the bartered princess.

Good performances were turned in by Sydney Fleet as Chocho, Ralph Eng as Li Chang and Keith Robin as Fu.

Musical effects were cleverly integrated and contributed much to the play's success.

Dr. E. A. Braithwaite, 86, chief coroner for the province of Alberta, will retire March 31.

He has held the position for 22 years.

Coal Operators Meet To Discuss Judgment

Members of the Northern Alberta Coal Operators' Association are meeting today to discuss the judgment handed down Wednesday by the Alberta appeal court.

Judgment came on a reference from the Alberta attorney-general's department on the interpretation of strikes and lockouts within the meaning of the Alberta Labor Act.

The appeal court held that employes illegally on strike shall retain their right to vote on selection of a bargaining agent.

"Coal operators will meet in the Williamson Building to study the judgment and will likely make a statement later," Jack Starky, president of the association said.

PERSONAL VIEWS

Mr. Starky added that he personally considered certain sections of the judgment do not uphold the right of men illegally on strike to vote on selection of bargaining agents.

Thomas McCloy, district organizer for the United Mineworkers of America said he would make a statement after a meeting with other officials of the union.

"We are satisfied, however, that our position was quite clear as decreed by the judgment," Mr. McCloy said.

Detective Fred E. Sloane, whose promotion was announced Thursday by Chief Constable Reg. Jennings. Detective Sloane was previously a constable with the traffic squad. The chief constable said Constable R. D. Bryant has also been added to the city force, effective March 22. The promotion and enlistment follow the retirement of Detective Hugh Morrow.

It has been brought to the attention of the board that appliances designed for liquid petroleum gas and artificial or manufactured gas are being offered for sale to natural gas consumers.

These appliances do not meet the requirements of the City's gas by-laws for natural gas.

About 15 Edmonton teachers and several others from Northern Alberta will be in Calgary for part of the annual school Easter holidays.

They will be attending the annual meeting of the Alberta Teachers' Association to be held in Calgary March 29, 30 and 31.

Also attending the convention from Edmonton will be Dr. H. E. Smith of the faculty of education, University of Alberta, and E. C. Ansley, secretary of the ATA.

About 16,000 Edmonton public school students go on holidays today until April 5. No special school activities have been planned during that time, Harry G. Turner, secretary-treasurer of Edmonton Public School Board said.

Special Session Looms on Grain

A special session of Alberta's legislature may be called to consider coarse grain marketing problems.

This was the main purpose of an amendment made by Hon. D. B. MacMillan, minister of agriculture to a CCF resolution asking for enabling legislation to be passed by the provincial government so that Alberta's coarse grains could come under the terms of any federal legislation which might be passed.

Mr. MacMillan said many farmers feared placing of coarse grains under the Canadian Wheat Board would mean western farmers would again be subsidizing the rest of Canada, as he claimed had been done with wheat marketing.

His amendment requested the government to study the whole question of grain marketing and "if it was found advisable so to do to enact legislation dealing with the marketing of coarse grains through the Canadian Wheat Board" at a special session of the legislature.

Labor Leaders Launch Attack on Legislation

A bill to amend the Alberta Labor Act was discriminatory, according to evidence heard by the legislative agricultural committee on Thursday.

Crowded galleries were checked on two separate occasions by chairman Gordon Taylor when they applauded as union representatives scored a point in the presentation of evidence.

United Mine Workers of America, District 18 believed that the amending bill was one of the most important to ever come before the Alberta legislature, J. C. Mahaffy, KC, Calgary counsel for the union told the committee.

He was supported by Angus J. Morrison, secretary of District 18, UMWA.

Mr. Mahaffy urged that punitive sections of the amending bill be deleted and that the clause restricting the nationality of bargaining agents to Canadians be also struck from the legislation.

The section providing for an appeal to a Supreme Court judge on the question of strike legality was also questioned by Mr. Mahaffy. He contended the responsibility for such a decision should rest with the minister in charge of labor relations.

Alberta Solons Get Only Brief Easter Recession

Rumors of a long Easter adjournment of the legislature were ended on Thursday.

It was learned that the public accounts committee will resume its hearings on the treasury branches and other governmental department operations on Tuesday morning, March 30 and the legislature will sit on Tuesday afternoon.

Many government members expressed themselves as being opposed to any haste in dealing with lest minute legislation.

Decision to have a brief Easter recess was made at a government caucus on Wednesday evening.

New Business for City Utilities

One of the reasons why revenue from Edmonton's five utilities fell $61,752 below the estimated $1,210,881 in 1947 is that little if any effort is being made to develop new business for the Transit System.

The Transit System, it is announced, had a deficit of $153,745.28 in 1947 as compared with $5,647.21 in 1946. The deficit for 1947 was $129,000 greater than expected when the estimates were passed.

Edmonton's Transit System can never hope to make money unless the service is regulated and extended to draw every last possible cent of revenue from every section of the city.

Capital expenditures involved in these extensions may increase the apparent deficits for a few years. But revenue must be calculated on a long-term basis. It is legitimate to spend a large sum of money on new branch lines if those lines will yield a profit over a reasonable number of years.

This is not the policy adopted by the Transit System.

On the contrary, the emphasis seems to be on restriction of service rather than on the enlargement of it.

For instance, residents of the North Delton area, east of 97 street and north of 127 avenue, are appealing for a bus line. There is a large settlement there although the city assessor's office refuses to hazard a guess as to the extent of its population.

It should not be necessary for these residential districts to come begging for transportation service. The Transit System should see these areas as opportunities and develop them.

Then, again, there is said to be a plan to bring the terminal of the 102 avenue bus further towards the city so that the vehicles will not be crowded with passengers from West Jasper Place. In short, the Transit System is prepared to turn up its nose at the revenue to be derived from the 1,300 families of West Jasper Place.

That is not the policy that will make any transportation system pay. No wonder the deficits are growing.

Should "Bookies" Be Legalized?

There is a color of good sense behind the proposal in the Alberta legislature that hand-books on the races be legalized and regulated within the province.

The moral aspects of gambling will not be discussed here. But from a purely legal standpoint, the arguments for legalized and regulated "bookies" are both many and sound.

In the first place, it is utterly ridiculous that bets on the horse races should be legal when they are taken through a pari-mutual machine at the tracks and illegal when taken through a private bookie. If betting is wrong, the use of a complicated bit of mechanism cannot make it right. If betting is justifiable at all, the absence of that same mechanism cannot make it wrong.

In the second place, raids on bookies are usually undertaken, not for purposes of elimination, but for purposes of revenue. That, at least, is the effect. The bookie pays his fine and goes merrily on.

Legalized and regulated bookies would yield a more regular revenue without that hypocrisy that exists under the periodic raid system.

The point is that any policy with regard to gambling should be consistent. If the province is opposed to wagering on horse races, the pari-mutuels should be abolished. If the pari-mutuels are not regarded as a menace, there is nothing wrong with licensed bookies, as they operate without any great detriment to the public morals in Great Britain.

There is the final thought that there is usually something fundamentally wrong with a law that cannot be even partially enforced.

Excellent Report on Welfare

The report on municipal-provincial relations, prepared by J. W. Judge and presented in the legislature, is a painstaking document of great good sense which, in recommending that the province assume a greater share of social welfare costs, will commend itself to every organized municipality in Alberta.

The report, compiled from 62 briefs, recommends that the province pay 80 per cent of the cost of indigent relief and child welfare. The municipalities now pay 100 per cent of these services.

The provincial share of 75 per cent of Mothers Allowances would be raised, under the report, to 80 per cent.

Municipalities which now pay the full cost of the care of mentally deficient persons would be relieved of all charge in this respect.

The province and municipalities would share between them the cost of the construction and operation of old people's homes.

The relief afforded to municipalities in these particulars is justified and even overdue for the simple reason that the taxation resources of cities and municipalities are not commensurate with the welfare burdens hitherto borne by their treasuries.

Cities and municipalities derive revenue from property taxation only. The provincial exchequer can be replenished from any source that does not conflict with the provisions of the British North America Act.

When a province undertakes higher expenditures, it can distribute the burden equitably. When a city is pressed for money, it can only bear down harder on the property owner.

This report, then, is one of the first recognitions ever given in the provinces that financial responsibility for public services should be commensurate with the field of revenue enjoyed by the governing body concerned.

Many Instances Of Racial Prejudice

That brief, fateful campaign to give up smoking last summer still has its repercussions. Latest is a note from George Albert Gray, who spent last summer in Kamloops working on his new book and is now back in New York and smoking like a busy smelter.

"Two packages a day, one after the other, as I sit at my typewriter, and hating every one of them," reports Author Gray. This makes the record of failures nearly one hundred per cent.

All those businessmen who were so violently angry at my criticism of the peurile propaganda in the interests of "Free Enterprise" may be interested in a letter from Gladstone Murray, former head of the CBC, now "policy counsel" for a group called "Responsible Enterprise."

Mr. Murray—whose own flood of pamphlets was criticized here some time ago—concedes that there is "point" in your criticism. It is my conviction," he writes, "that the Enterprise system can survive in any form only if it demonstrates its social necessity. Co-partnership and profit-sharing are gaining ground."

It would be interesting if we saw the mouth-pieces of big business involved in a war of semantics.

Dorothy Tennant, commenting on the piece here about bores who visit hospital patients, puts in a timely suggestion to write some cheerful notes to sick friends.

"I knew a woman once who was in a hospital with an apparently incurable disease," she writes. "The doctors had given up hope. She herself said it did not matter much whether she lived or died. Then one day a letter arrived from a relative who loved her very much. It gave her the will to live. The hope and courage she needed. That letter was the beginning of her recovery."

On Segregation Of the Dead

The report here of a cemetery's policy of "restricted" plots, calling for a segregation of Negroes and Orientals from "white" areas has brought many letters.

L. C. L. writes: "My apologies to Mrs. Crawford (widow of Frank Crawford, killed in a logging accident) for our crudeness and intolerance and flouting of quality. My sincere sympathy to her in her bereavement. And yet, as I condemn this incident, I also condemn myself for my own prejudices, due to my early upbringing. I am thoroughly ashamed and am honestly trying to rid myself of them."

Joyce H. writes: "Since I've just turned 18, I'm one of those people frequently referred to by the elders as 'a citizen of tomorrow.' Heaven knows, we are always being told people are trying to make the world a better place for us to live in and I believe some people are. But how do people expect us to live happily together if they are forever building up walls and barriers of hate and intolerance around us?"

"When I think of the hurts these poor people have to take it just gets me down," writes Mrs. J. Taylor. "There seems so little one can do about it. What hope is there for a better world when race prejudice runs rampant in our 'democracy?'"

Mrs. L. A. H. adds: "Many people would not really understand what this means. I understand. I am an Indian."

And from Lillooet comes still another report of race prejudice. An application to the B.C. Coal and Petroleum Board to purchase a garage business was made there by a Japanese-Canadian. It was rejected without reason.

"If it can happen to him, it can happen to me," writes my informant, a well-known business man there who had handled the transfer application.

Sad Illusion Shattered

A 31 year-old war widow has written me a bitter story which she calls "The Case of the Shattered Illusion." I pass part of it along as an indication of the thoughts of some fellow citizens:

"Once upon a time there lived a shining Little Illusion. He believed, silly little fellow that he was, that we had just fought a glorious war to end all wars.

"Now," he thought, 'People everywhere will have learned to live in peace and harmony.' The war wounded were improving every minute. Some of them could even walk. The blind were beginning to find themselves to their world of darkness. The widows and orphans were getting used to not having daddy come home at night.

"And then: A great voice boomed forth: Conscription! Fear! Hate! Rearmament! Conscription! Little Illusion was so startled his halo nearly fell off: "oh, it's just the radio," Little Illusion laughed with relief. Just another of those invasion from Mars things, I guess.

"Little Illusion snapped the offending machine off quickly and turned to his evening paper. But, no matter how he looked, those terrible words were still there.

"Little Illusion was so bewildered. Slowly his halo lost its gleam. His round, pink, well-washed face lost its rose glow. His bright blue eyes dimmed.

"And, so, another beautiful Little Illusion fell, shattered and lifeless, to the cold, hard reality of the world."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Broadcast from Legislature

Editor, Bulletin—May I, through your medium, offer a suggestion to the premier and the legislature, which I believe is a constructive one, that it broadcast its deliberations over CKUA. Surely many would be interested, especially those in rural areas, and give listeners several hours' relief from sloppy, gooey soap operas.

I listen to the Saskatchewan legislature's instructive broadcast, even though having no use for the CCF, but it gives me an insight of democracy working, especially the other afternoon, when hearing one "honorable gentleman" call the premier a stinking skunk.

Who Serves The Veterans!

Editor, Bulletin—When Mr. Prowse became leader of the Liberal party many of us were concerned whether he could continue to work for the ex-servicemen as he had been doing in the past or not. But when we saw his interest in the Wanham land project and the results he obtained when he got after the government it showed that he was taking even more interest and was getting better results than ever before.

When the Wanham board of trade, the Canadian Legion and numerous veterans found out the project had been stopped they immediately took the matter up with the government but were completely ignored. It was not until Mr. Prowse gave his radio broadcast on the Wanham land project that the government took any action.

The thing that amazed us was the fact that Mr. Colborne, instead of helping Mr. Prowse was actually opposing him, and it seems Mr. Colborne was and is more concerned with getting land for the Hutterites than for the veterans.

Speaking of the other service member, about the only complaint we have ever heard Mr. Ward make of the government was that he couldn't take his wife in the beer parlor with him.

The fact that the veterans going on the project have been set back a year seems to be of no concern to the navy and airforce members and had it not been for Mr. Prowse the veterans would have probably been set back indefinitely. Further, we have no one but Mr. Prowse to thank for the fact that, as a result of his investigation, the veterans have been saved two million dollars, and that ain't hay!

So when you start talking of your service members and Mr. Prowse being a Liberal just watch what the three of them are doing and make up your own mind as to which one is really the serviceman's representative.

Edmonton Is In Line of Fire

Editor, Bulletin.—The morale of the people is a very important factor when it comes to preventing or winning a war, but let's not be too hasty in our judgment of these characters that march under the banner and sickle.

Mr. Weir's article of March 20, seemed to me to be a little out of proportion. Bullies are generally blusters, yes, but I seem to recall a few stands made by the Russians in Europe during World War II, that would have taken some turning back: i.e. Stalingrad.

Should Russia decide to knock out a few American cities, which Mr. Weir claims is possible, she will drop just as many eggs on Edmonton as on Washington. Any way you look at it, Edmonton is fast becoming one of the key cities of North America.

Montgomery once said: "Never under-estimate your enemy."

I hope Mr. Weir is right in his prediction for peace.

Earnings of Railroaders

Editor, Bulletin—In the debate in the Alberta legislature on the amendments to the Workmen's Compensation Act there appeared a report in which Gordon E. Taylor, MLA, Drumheller, was quoted as saying that "Few railroad workers earned less than $3,000 per year."

The Executive Board of Edmonton Lodge 95, Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employes take exception to this statement knowing it to be incorrect and misleading publicity.

Maintenance of Way Employes are the men who work on the tracks and bridges. They are known as section-men and bridge-men and number over 25,000 permanent employes. This does not include extra gangs. After two years of experience section-men receive 69 cents per hour. This is the largest wage they have ever received. Only in first class terminals do they receive more—74 cents per hour.

An employe must have 15 to 20 years of service before he can hold a regular terminal job and receive this large reward of 74 cents an hour, in other words a very large number of track employes earn less than $1,800 per annum, and they must work a 48-hour week to obtain this amount. So-called permanent staffs are subject to lay-offs when business becomes quiet. This greatly reduces their annual earnings.

Brotherhood of Maintenance of Waymen are only one organization of the 18 union covering more than 140,000 Railroad workers. It is such statements that lead the general public to believe that all railroaders earn big wages. This is definitely not the case.

We believe that Mr. Taylor would be well advised in future to be in possession of correct figures before imparting them to the general public.

Editor, Bulletin—On behalf of the Edmonton Junior Chamber of Commerce Winter Carnival Committee, we wish to extend our thanks for your generous contribution and to express our sincere appreciation of your awareness of the Winter Carnival project. It is only with the assistance of such civic-minded people as yourself that an undertaking of this kind can be made a success.

We would welcome any suggestions that you might have for improving this carnival in the coming year.

Office Boy: "You're right, sir. I never heard such language in all my life."

"No; I'd like one for myself on the same terms."

Traveller: "That was an umbrella I bought."

An official with a very annoying manner was making an inspection of an aerodrome.

On this particular afternoon parachute practice was being undertaken by a number of pilots and the official asked question after question of one man about his experiences and sensations while falling through the air.

"But supposing your parachute fails to open while you are coming down?" he asked finally. "What do you do then?"

The pilot had had more than enough by this time. "Take it back and change it," he replied.

SITTING ON THE FENCE By Nathaniel Gubbins

Frustrated Cat Seeks Advice On Social Ostracism by Females

In a world that appears to change every five minutes, it is a relief to find at least one thing which remains the same.

I refer to the lofty contempt of the leader writer of the National Funny Morning Newspaper for everything which does not exactly agree with the policy of the National Funny, whatever that may be.

Except that he does not yell at us in black type to emphasize his points any more, he is still in either a muck sweat of indignation at some little matter hardly noticed by silly people like us, or in a cold rage at the imbecility of statesmen who always appear to be too busy with world affairs to take any notice of him.

As a keen student of his work for many years, I always know if he is in a hot or cold mood.

* * *

In a muck sweat, he refers, with savage sarcasm, to his imaginary enemies as "these gentry," by which he means they are a lot of council school cads.

In a cold rage, he refers to their "pitiful incompetence," and to their carefully chosen words, written or spoken, as "jargon," by which he means he could do the job better himself.

Still maintaining his 1935 form, when he was lashing out at everybody but Mussolini (who won his approval for running Italian trains on time), when he was thundering in black type that Haile Selassie, Lion of Judah, would not be admitted to a decent English golf club, he has now turned his withering scorn on the Government Economic Survey for 1948.

Although it seemed a well-written effort to a simple chap like me, it got the National Funny's leader writer into one of his cold rages.

"It has arrived," he sneered. "It has too many words, too few ideas. It is vague, pompous, and packed with jargon."

So different, of course, from the leading articles in the National Funny Morning Newspaper.

At the suggestion of a reader Lottie, devil cat and feline intellectual, will, from time to time, advise puzzled cats on social and domestic problems. The first column by this brilliant cat appears below.

* * *

My claws are getting blunt through lack of use. The young couple I am living with object strongly when I try to sharpen my claws on their new utility furniture or even on the legs of the kitchen table. What do you advise?—Timid Tom.

I advise you to snap out of this slavish attitude of mind at once. Who are they to object to their modish furniture being scratched? If they make any more fuss, wait till they are out of the house and tear the stuffing out of it. And smash a few ornaments for good measure.

As for the legs of the kitchen table, you have all night to make your mark on those, I presume?

Don't let me hear from you again until you have established your rights and the place is in ruins.

* * *

Owing to an unfortunate occurrence over which I had no control, my society is not acceptable to the cat set of my neighborhood.

Although considered good looking, with a fine figure, the cats spit at me when I pass, while their boy friends jeer. As I am of a sociable disposition and would welcome female companionship and young society, I find this ostracism hard to bear.

Apart from having a passable appearance, I am also well-mannered, am not too old, and feel I could give a girl a good time in a restricted way. Do you know of any simple games that would interest the modern she cat?—Almost a Gentleman.

I am afraid yours is a case which is becoming only too common in this country, and, while offering you my sympathy, I must insist that you will not allow yourself to get too morbid about your loneliness.

I often wonder why cats like you don't form local clubs and socials and organize mouse hunts and games with ping-pong balls. Surely this is better than sitting by the fire and dreaming of what might have been?

If you did this, I feel confident the she cats of your neighborhood would have more respect for you and might even admire your gallant acceptance of a cruel fate.

I do not know of any simple games likely to interest the modern she cat. Nor do I think your good manners and gentlemanly appearance are likely to get you anywhere.

If you must have young companionship, why not get in with a good family of kittens and play your mark on those, I presume?

Don't let me hear from you again until you have established your rights and the place is in ruins.

Although worn may not himself be Communist, because he hasn't enough brains, he has always flirted with Kremlin and, no doubt, has been used by cunning foreign agents, posing as hail-fellow-well-met worms, and buying dupe worms beer with Red gold, to spread filthy, foreign politics among miserable clerks in twopenny-ha'penny offices and even in Worm's-avenue itself.

Of course, wife always knew that worm, like most puny, undersized men, had Fuehrer complex. No doubt, flattered by cunning agents, worm already fancies himself as Commissar of Worm's-avenue, armed with revolver and stamping about in big boots as he did when he joined Home Guards, to show off silly medal ribbons.

* * *

Perhaps jealous worm even fancies himself entering gas manager's house and ordering gas manager in name of Arthur Horner to give up best bedroom to filthy, tramps, or ordering gas manager's wife into mines.

Wife has always heard that Communists are all frustrated, unsuccessful men, and no doubt indolent, good-for-nothing worm would like to see get-on-or-get-out gas manager, wife head of Notarians, and whose wife is head of Notarians Ladies' Inner Wheel, brought down to worm's own gutter level.

In fact, wife can foresee the time when her own life will be in danger. When worm is set on world domination and there is a picture of Harry Pollitt hanging over their best sex-mad worm will then have power and opportunity to give wife away to secret police, have her shot for not dusting Pollitt's picture frame, and rule Kremlin and world in arms of blonde bar-maid.

Truman May Ban War Goods Export

Engines, Planes, Tractors Bulldozers For Russia

WASHINGTON, March 25. — (AP) — Testimony that United States warplane engines have been shipped to Russia within the last six months and that shipping boxes marked for Russia are lying "all over the New York waterfront" was presented to Congress Wednesday.

In rapid-fire order, witnesses made these points before a house sub-committee:

1. Forty-six new engines "suitable for bombers or troop-carrying planes" were shipped from New York to Russia and Poland starting last May and continuing to the end of 1947.

2. Since the end of hostilities the War Assets administration has sold 21,278 combat-type planes for scrap, at scrap prices, "some of which were obviously new."

3. President Truman is expected to issue a proclamation "within a few days" banning the export of all airplane engines and other supplies used "predominantly for military purposes."

4. The state department has "not yet worked out its policy on the distinction between shipment of American goods to friendly and unfriendly countries."

High officials of the War Assets Administration and the state department testified on all these points except the reported shipment of airplane engines to Russia.

EVERYBODY KNOWS

Clarence Carruthers, president of the Wall Street aeronautical supplies firm of Carruthers, Inc., told the committee:

"Everybody in New York knows there are boxes and cases marked for Russia lying all over the New York waterfront. They are being loaded every day. They're being loaded this afternoon, for that matter, and they've been loaded for the last three days I know of.

"I've seen diamond (oil-drilling) tools for Russia and other materials ear-marked for Praha (Prague) Czechoslovakia," he went on.

"They've brought in 60 Soviet-flag ships flying the Hammer and Sickle into New York harbor and loaded them with material for Russia since the first of the year. They carry everything from tractors and bulldozers to electric generators.

Asked to name some of the alleged shippers, Carruthers ticked off a list which included Pratt and Whitney, makers of airplane engines, General Electric and Western Electric.

Barbara Ann's Win Makes Sport Popular

By Ken Metheral

CALGARY, March 25.—(CP)—Figure skating—riding on the crest of popularity caused by Barbara Ann Scott of the honey-blonde curls—is rapidly growing into one of Canada's major sport attractions.

Donald D. Cruikshank, president of the Ottawa Minto Skating Club which proudly claims Barbara Ann as a member, said in an interview Wednesday that "Barbara Ann has done more to foster figure skating among the youth of Canada than any other person or organization."

"Her world-wide successes have created so much interest in figure skating that throughout Canada children are taking it up as a major sport."

Other skating officials here echoed the Minto president's remarks and several predicted that membership of skating clubs across the country would increase from 10 to 20 per cent next season.

Since her arrival here last Saturday to complete her training for the Dominion championships opening today, the petite, attractive skating queen has proven that she is an ambassador of good will for the figure skating world as well as a near-flawless performer.

RIDE-AROUND

Unspoiled by the honors and ovations heaped upon her since her triumphal return from Europe earlier this month, after sweeping the European, world and Olympic Women's championships, the charming Ottawa skater has gone out of her way to make new friends and offer words of encouragement to younger skaters.

Wednesday she thrilled several tiny tots at Calgary's Glencoe Skating Club when she finished off a strenuous practice session by picking up the youngsters and "giving them a ride" around the rink.

Mr. Cruickshank, a vice-president of the Canadian Figure Skating Association, is himself a former champion skater. Together with his wife, he swept four Canadian pairs championships in the late 30s and in 1940. He was also runner-up in the North American fours championships in 1939.

WAR WIDOW KEEPS AUCTIONED HOME

BEDFORD, Ind., March 25.—(AP)—A modest little home north of here is still owned by a Second World War widow and her five children even though it was auctioned off at a tax delinquent sale Monday.

When the home came up in the sales, County Auditor Donald Smith explained the circumstances. The auctioneer called for bids and the crowd was silent.

"Til bid $15," a woman's voice finally said.

Again the crowd was silent.

The auctioneer shouted "sold," and gave a receipt to the woman who had made the bid—Mrs. Dona Blevins, the war widow who lives in the place.

Truman Would Rather Be Right Than Rule

By Clyde Blackburn

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(CP)—President Truman's handling of the $4,800,000,000 tax-cutting bill sent him by Congress today may clinch for him the title—"The man who would rather be right than president."

It was suggested editorially in the Washington Star that perhaps responsibilities of the moment were forcing the president to that conclusion.

Congress has sent down the popular tax-cutting bill which will lighten the burden of most voters in this election year. It applies to 1948 incomes.

ADDS TO UNPOPULARITY

Because of his determined stand against tax-cutting (he vetoed a similar bill last year) it seems certain the president will send it back with a veto.

This only adds to the unpopular moves he has been forced to make on the eve of the nominating convention and less than eight months away from the elections.

The overwhelming support given this tax bill in both Senate and House of Representatives indicates that the veto can easily be over-ridden. It takes two-thirds of the votes of those present and voting in each house to over-ride a veto.

Here are some more of the president's headaches at a time when he is ready to be nominated by the Democratic party for a full term in the White House:

He antagonized the solid southern Democrats by asking for federal legislation ensuring civil rights of colored people.

MANY AGAINST HIM

He is asking Congress for immediate re-enactment of selective service to draft men for the armed services and for enactment of the highly-unpopular universal military training bill.

He antagonized Jewish people and their sympathizers by reversing this country's position in support of the partition of Palestine.

He has bluntly told Communists and their sympathizers that he does not want their support and virtually closed the door to any possible return to the fold of Henry Wallace, who is running a third party campaign which is bound to cut into heretofore Democrat votes.

Now a growing army of former staunch supporters are turning against him, looking about for another candidate and urging him to stay out of the nomination picture.

Idealists suggest this firm stand for what he believes to be right may work to Truman's political advantage. But the signs point the other way.

ROOF PUT ON WRONG HOUSE

NEW HAMPTON, Ia., March 25.—(AP)—C. R. Honts is a very surprised man.

He came home the other day and found $400 worth of new shingle roofing on his house.

He isn't any more surprised than the Wormhouse Insulation Company of Mason City, though.

The new roof was supposed to go on the home of Mrs. Minnie Kolthoff, one of Honts' neighbors.

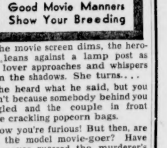

Work on the nearly-completed Honts' roof has been suspended pending negotiations.

QUINTS BORN, BUT SOON DIE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 25. —(AP) — Quintuplets — three girls and two boys—were born to Mrs. Roman V. Gadiage at a hospital here yesterday. The three girls were stillborn. The boys lived in incubators for about 20 minutes.

Dr. A. J. Pauli delivered the babies. He said Mrs. Gadiage, 31, was in her fifth month of pregnancy. "If it had been a normal pregnancy, we probably could have had five babies today," he added.

The babies ranged in weight from 8½ to 15 ounces.

Good Movie Manners Show Your Breeding

The movie screen dims, the heroine leans against a lamp post as her lover approaches and whispers from the shadows. She turns. . .

She heard what he said, but you didn't because somebody behind you giggled and the couple in front were crackling popcorn bags.

Now you're furious! But then, are you the model movie-goer? Have you never guessed the murderer's name in a whisper that carried to the top balcony?

A darkened theatre won't hide shoddy manners. Make no mistake about that.

Your escort gets a pretty good idea of your disposition and breeding if you indulge in loud hissing and stomping when the villain appears.

And you never know what family acquaintance or friend, or teacher may be sitting near you in the dark!

Suppose there's an especially good movie you want to see. Find out when the feature starts and arrive at the beginning. Then you'll enjoy the show and you won't have to crawl over knees during the best scene.

Etiquette at the movies, in restaurants, at parties, on the street, good manners at your job, letter writing and other every-day etiquette are included in our Reader Service guide. The 40-pages of factual advice will give you confidence in any situation.

Hoover Backs Aid Program

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(AP)—Herbert Hoover endorsed the $5,300,000,000 European Recovery Program Wednesday as "a major dam against Russian aggression."

The former United States president said the program "should produce economic, political and self-defence unity in western Europe."

"I believe it is worth taking the chance," Hoover said in his first public statement since President Truman's stop-Communism speech last week. Truman called for adoption of the program as one of the most urgently needed parts of his new policy.

Hoover's statement was read to the House, which was debating the Euroean Recovery Program for the second day as part of its $6,205,000,000 foreign aid bill.

In the Senate, the question of turning the atom bomb back to military control was raised during a foreign affairs discussion.

Senate Approves Food Purchase Act

OTTAWA, March 25—(CP)—The Senate gave swift and final approval Wednesday to a bill to extend government powers to bulk-purchase foodstuffs to fill contracts with Britain.

Second and third reading were put through in less than 10 minutes. In a pre-Easter drive it passed the Commons Tuesday.

Senator Wishart Robertson, government leader in the chamber, piloted the bill which would extend to March 31, 1949, the government's powers to buy food to meet contracts with Britain. The foods include beef, bacon, eggs and cheese.

Senator John T. Haig, Progressive Conservative leader, commented briefly that its best feature was its limited life.

Eastwood Cops Inter-School Casaba Title

A one-point margin looks pretty scanty on a basketball score sheet, but it appeared as big as a house to a band of Eastwood cagers Wednesday night.

That single digit meant victory over McCauley, 18-17, and the intermediate inter-school championship in one of the closest series in the history of the league. McCauley was the first match 25-10 and Eastwood took the second by another point margin, 23-22.

Bill Grochoiski gave the winners a two-point edge with a field basket two minutes from the end of the crucial final match and Keil scored a free shot for the opposition in the dying seconds.

Grochoiski and Vic Molofy led the champs with eight points apiece, while Keil (9), and John Kruk (6), topped McCauley.

McCauley held an 8-1 lead at the end of the first quarter, but Eastwood went ahead 11-10 at the half-way mark. Eastwood was still out in front, 14-12, at the end of third.

Senators Tune Up On Base Sliding

NEW YORK, March 25.—(AP)—Washington Senators, who can't count on pounding out as many hits this season as some other clubs, are planning to make the most out of those they get.

Manager Joe Kuhel has installed at Orlando, Fla., the first sliding pit a Washington club has seen at spring training in 13 years. "There's no sense kidding ourselves," says Kuhel. "We aren't going to power a lot of runs across the plate. We've got to scramble on the bases to get everything out of what we have."

* * *

Leslie O'Connor, vice-president and general manager of Chicago White Sox, is not perturbed by the club's dismal showing in spring exhibition games. "We're lucky to get all that bad baseball out of our system before the games start to count," he says. "We still have a lot of time to get in stride for the season opener."

* * *

What happens when the regular season starts is an entirely different matter, but so far Johnny Mize is leading Ralph Kiner in home runs.

Mize of New York Giants has smacked two, one against Bob Feller with the bases full, while the only time the Pittsburgh outfielder has driven out of the park is his shiny new convertible.

The two wound up in a 31-all tie run championship.

Junior Skaters Tune Up for Meet

CALGARY, March 25.—(CP)—Canada's figure skaters—rated by leading professionals as some of the world's finest performers — Wednesday night painstakingly checked and re-checked their equipment in preparation for the Dominion championships opening here on Thursday.

The junior skaters, who twirled and jumped across the ice in day-long practice sessions, paid close attention to the almost flawless form displayed by Barbara Ann Scott as she went through a strenuous five-hour practice session that started at 7:30 a.m.

She concentrated on figures during the major part of the day and also spent considerable time perfecting a spectacular triple jump spin.

Maroons Favored To Oust Melville

CAMROSE, March 25.—Camrose Maroons, who took the first two games in their best-of-five series against Melville Millionaires in the semi-finals of the Western Canada intermediate championship, will be out to sweep the round when the series resumes here Thursday night.

The Maroons, who have been playing at peak form in recent games, toppled the Saskatchewan representatives 6-3 and 13-2. They are heavy favorites to advance into the final.

Fort Frances Goes Two Up on Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, March 25. — (CP) — Fort Frances Canadians whipped Winnipeg Flyers 4-2 in the second game of a best-of-five Western Canada senior hockey semi-final Wednesday night and need one more win to enter the Western final. The Thunder Bay champions won the opener here Monday 5-4. Third game will be played in Fort Arthur Saturday night.

Canadians, who entered the series as underdogs, matched the Manitoba champions goal for goal through the first two periods and then came through with a surge in the final session for two scores.

The Thunder Bay champions were paced by two of the four Robertson brothers—Murray and Sugar—who scored a goal apiece. Murray's first period tally squared away a counter by Mike Yaschuk of Flyers while Sugar's tally on a breakaway in the third period was the winning goal.

Roy Glover tallied the other Winnipeg goal while the other two Fort Frances scores went to Doc Johnson and Willie Tonanito. The goal by Tonanito, like that of Sugar Robertson's, came on a third period breakaway. Flyers had a decided edge in the third period, but couldn't get on the score sheet.

DOUBLE PENALTY

Glover's second period goal came shortly after Sambo Fedoruk and Sam Fabro had returned from serving tripping penalties. On their return Glover picked up Yaschuk's pass inside Fort Canadians' blueline, skated in to drive a low shot by Johnston.

While Joey Tergeson was off on a holding penalty, Hal Thompson rose to sensational heights in the Flyers' net as Fort Frances forced the play. The Canadians continued to drive at Sykes went off for slashing, leaving Flyers two men short.

The Flyers held better while short handed than when they returned to full strength. With the sides even, Flyers appeared to let down with the result that Canadians came through with a goal by Johnson.

LINE-UPS:

DUCEY HEADS SOUTH FOR BALL PLAYERS

If there should be any stray baseball talent around the California training camps of either Brooklyn Dodgers, or New York Yankees, John Ducey, Edmonton promoter, intends to be on hand to gather it up for Edmonton teams in the Big Four League.

Ducey, accompanied by Elva Steffes of Morinville, was scheduled to leave for the south Thursday morning. He will be gone about three weeks. While in the south he will also contact a number of Californians who played in the Big Four League last season.

Musial's Timely Tap Dumps Yanks in Tenth

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 25. — (BUP) — Stan Musial's sharp single to left in the 10th inning gave the St. Louis Cardinals an 8-7 victory over the New York Yankees Wednesday.

Musial delivered his game-winning hit against relief pitcher Clarence (Cuddles) Marshall.

Trailing 7-4 in the ninth, the Yankees tied it up when outfielder Johnny Lindell hit a three-run homer, his second round-tripper of the game. Bill Johnson of the Yankees and catcher Del Wilber of the Cardinals also hit home runs Rookie first baseman Glen Nelson of St. Louis hit three singles.

Charley Keller of the Yankees made his 1948 debut by singling as a pinch-hitter in the ninth.

Outfielder Johnny Groth contributed several sparkling catches and drove in the winning run in the seventh inning Wednesday as Detroit Tigers defeated Boston Red Sox, 3-1, before 1,249 fans.

Virgil Trucks started off the Tiger seventh by hitting an inside-the-park home run to tie the score Johnny Lipon then doubled and Groth scored him with a single. Dick Wakefield's wind - blown double accounted for the third run.

Trucks, who had relieved Dizzy Trout in the fifth, was the winner, while Earl Johnson, who took over for Jack Kramer in the sixth, was the loser.

"Anti-Semitism Bugaboo" Rears Ugly Head at Coast

BY GEORGE FINLAY

VANCOUVER, March 25.—(CP)—Vancouver, like many Canadian cities, is not free of racial hatred. Pat (Vancouver Sun) Slattery says the old anti-Semitism bugaboo has again reared its ugly head around golf clubs here.

"No more Jewish golfers can join a certain public course's private club," Slattery reported. "This new ruling will no doubt force the resignation of the course's two Jewish members in the club."

Some Jewish golfers toyed with the idea of making a $30,000 investment in a golf course, but the majority have no wish to be part of a "Ghetto" club.

"This would be playing right into the hands of the Jew-haters who would love to see segregation," quotes Slattery.

ROUGH STUFF

Clancy (Vancouver News-Herald) Loranger finds it's nice to be back in Canada, where men are gentlemen and women don't go around hitting hockey players.

Portland was a nice, polite hockey city, but Tacoma and Seattle—both players and fans—were rather rough, ready to wrap a purse, two-by-four or hockey stick around a neck.

Charlie Lavoman, now sports editor of the Columbian in New Westminster, who knows all about hockey warfare from his experience on the Winnipeg Free Press, found out how rough the Americans are—he had a bruise to prove it.

Charlie went south with New Westminster Royals, was identified as an enemy, and had to do some fancy ducking when three Seattle Ironmen didn't like remarks about a penalty.

Loranger had a front row seat, and reported at the height of the scrimmage "the law rushed in, and delivered a stern rebuke to Laveman for disturbing the paying guests."

SHORTS

Vancouver fans see boxla on ice a game of the future . . . It combines the best features of lacrosse and hockey . . . Smiling Larry Kwong, the little Chinese ice speedster from Vernon, B.C., hit big time hockey with New York Rangers . . . But in his hometown he's also remembered as a top tennis man, a lacrosse player and trackman—all at the age of 24.

Relentless Offensive Ousts Game Stamps

Team Effort Brings Title To Edmonton

bearing the big black aircraft on the front but fought tirelessly from start to finish.

CALGARY SCORES FIRST

Disdainfully Flyers spotted Calgary the first goal of the contest, Dunc Grant netting after less than five minutes of frenzied action on a sortie with 'Red' Hunter.

Instead of being thrown out of kilter by the loss of this marker Captain Gordon Watt and his buddies let out another notch. They poured it on in a determined drive for the equalizer.

It came finally at 14:04 with Maher switching on the red light and a play with shifty Johnny Black.

Then and there the hockey shadows began to lengthen for Stampeders, a team which has won more games over the past three seasons than any other in Canada.

STAMPS FIGHT BACK

The Cowboys didn't give up the ghost because the scoreboard no longer was weighted to their advantage. On the contrary they fought the challengers for the title which has been theirs since the inception of the WCHL in tooth and nail style.

But the Flyers weren't to be denied.

To start the middle stanza they mounted a torrid offensive that saw them out-gunning Stampeders 14 shots to seven over the 20 minutes. Such pressure had to pay off.

Just when the action was hottest in the Calgary end Bud Emery who has played consistently well on the Stamp rear-guard for the past two months, was thumbed away for giving "Bing" Merluk the business with a knee.

Before the former Ottawa star got back Flyers had gone ahead to stay. On the first face-off following Emery's banishment Anderson, ace rookie of the year, shook the strings behind Russ Dertell with a blazing backhander.

SMITTEN SCORES

Smitten made it 3-1 at 13.35 off a sweet relay from Elmer Kreller. The Stamps were on the run by this time with their fortunes deteriorating still further 43 seconds later as the sprightly Anderson got home with a high drive for his second goal to make it 4-1.

There wasn't much in it thereafter.

'Butch' McDonald tallied seconds from the end of the period to close the gap to 4-2. Once back for the third however, Flyers quickly took charge. They had no thought of defensive hockey and proceeded to notch the only goals of the period.

Smitten and Maher were the snipers.

The former's came on the tick at one minute even. Dertell went fishing for the puck a second time less than four minutes later as Maher did the caging.

It was 6-2 by this time. There could be no doubting which was the better team. Flyers not only had dethroned the Calgarians but as well had rubbed salt into the wounds.

The big clock in the centre of the Arena slowly ticked off the minutes as time began to run out for Stamps following Maher's marker. At times during the playoffs the former Allan Cup holders have rallied in spectacular fashion to pull the chestnuts from the fire.

SOME APPREHENSION

The fear that a tired Stampeder machine might do the same thing all over again filled the final minutes with some apprehension for the more faint-hearted Flyer supporters.

However, the spark just wasn't there in the last few exchanges were enlivened as Stamps' Don Culley tangled in turn with Harvey (Pug) Young, Gordon Watt and Bud MacPherson.

The curly-haired cowboy was seated in the penalty box with MacPherson at the time the klaxon went to officially crown the new champions.

"Champions" . . .

Today . . . and the word has a new, more pleasant connotation than ever.

SPORTS BULLETIN

Doug Anderson Takes Playoff Point Title

Edmonton Flyer's Pony Express line—Doug Anderson, 'Handy Andy' Clovechok and 'Bing' Merluk—finished one, two, three in Western Canada Hockey League playoff point-getting race, according to an unofficial tabulation by the Bulletin Thursday.

Rookie Anderson, who will take in Montreal Canadiens' training camp next fall, capped a brilliant league season by copping the title with 15 points. Giving it an all-Edmonton touch, Clovechok captured runner-up honors with 14, while Merluk clicked for 13. Czech-born Clovechok also snared most goals-eight.

Lethbridge's punch trio of Roy Heximer, Steve Latoski and Grant Hall, although knocked out in the first round, is bunched high in the point column. Heximer and Latoski finished four, five, while Hall tied Dunc Grant of Calgary, for sixth spot.

Flyer's Pug Young, who usually takes the bad man honors, could manage no better than a draw with teammate Gordon Watt. Each spent 14 minutes in the sin-bin.

Guy Lombardo Sets Powerboat Record

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 25. — (AP) — Bandleader Guy Lombardo set a record for Gold Cup supercharged racing boats Wednesday when he clocked 113.208 miles an hour in his Tempo VI.

Wind and rough water later caused him to postpone an attempt to break the 125-mile-an-hour unlimited hydroplane mark set by Gar Wood 16 years ago. Lombardo will make the try Thursday.

He hopes to break the 124.915-mile-an-hour speed set in 1932 by Gar Wood's Miss America X, and if successful, he will attempt sometime this summer to beat the world's record of 141.74 miles an hour set by Sir Malcolm Campbell in 1939.

Big Four Now Faced With Extra Grid Club

TORONTO, March 25.—(CP)—Executive of the Interprovincial Rugby Football Union went into a huddle Wednesday night with three teams in the league and the problem of adding one to make the traditional Big Four. They came out of it with five teams and the problem of how to drop one of them.

After some four hours of wrangling, punctuated by frequent long distance telephone calls to their home cities by the delegates, the executive decided the second problem was too much to digest in one night so they left it over for another meeting next Wednesday.

Eddie Emerson of Ottawa, Big Four president, announced following the closed meeting that the next meeting, called for 2 p.m. Wednesday in Toronto will seek "to decide the four teams that will actually compose the Big Four" next season.

CHOICE OF TWO CLUBS

The choice, he explained, will lie between Hamilton Tigers, who announced the league they wish to reconsider last Saturday's withdrawal, and Hamilton Wildcats, the Ontario Rugby Football Union team whose application was accepted as a replacement for Tigers. The other three clubs—Montreal Alouettes, Toronto Argonauts and Ottawa Rough Riders—will remain unaffected.

Intermediate "B" Finals Saturday

Fred Morie's City Intermediate "B" Hockey League swings into the stretch at the Arena Saturday night when Jasper Place clashes with Cloverdale in the first game of a best-of-five final series. Winner of the round will be presented with the Irving Kline Trophy. Game time Saturday is 8:30 o'clock.

All Bedlam Broke Loose In Flyers' Dressing Room: Meet the League Champs

There may be noisier, more-exciting places than the dressing room of a hockey team which has just won a title but it's doubtful. Andy Clovechok beat the rest of his teammates back by a few seconds last night but he was hardly in the door before the room began to fill with players and well-wishers.

Members of the Stampeders were among the first of the hand-shakers and back-slappers to show. Dune reached for the hand of Freddy Smitten. "Nice going . . . nice game . . . nice win," veteran 'Butch' McDonald observed as he pumped Doug Anderson's willing paw. Ken Stewart and Morey Rimstad clasped hands.

So it went . . . all down the line. Quiet Russ Dertell didn't get around until he was dressed for the street. But he came through like the rest of his teammates. "No fooling." Grant put it, "I hope they do all the way."

The Stamps went out like champions should. D. P. McDonald, league president, was on hand to offer congratulations as was Dr. W. G. Hardy, I.I.H.A. president and L.A. (Lefty) Grove, chairman of the first Flyer hockey committee.

Dr. Al Hall and Dr. G. Williamson, club physicians, risked bruised knuckles as they went the rounds. So too did Fred Kemp, Gordon McDonald, Charlie Wilson and more of the Exhibition Association. All the while players slapped each other on the back, photographers' flashlight-bulbs exploded, there was a terrific din.

Stampeders No Shoveovers

Stamps had been anything but shoveovers. The wraithlike Grant, who has scored more goals than any other operator in the WCHL, shot them away from the mark on a long screened drive early in the game.

It had been tonight-or-never for them as they headed into action. Spurred by the Grant success Jack Arbour's men had tried hard to make a real game of it but there was no cooling out Flyers once they took charge.

The action was rugged. When it was obvious that Flyers were "in" certain of the boys started settling scores. Bill Maher and Bunny Dame took raps at each other, an aftermath of a feud which got its start in the second game on Calgary Ice.

Johnny Black and Tony Desmarais ripped into each other. 'Pug' Young and Bud Emery clashed. Near the finish Don Culley, a former Edmonton junior, looked like he might go right down the line, a Flyer at a time. He was saved by the bell.

Emery and Dertell were probably suffering the big headache when it was over. Emery had drawn a penalty at a crucial moment and Doug Anderson had scored while he was in with timer Stan Morgan. Goalie Dertell would be remembering Anderson's second goal.

Off a rising shot the puck was headed for the screen behind the net. Dertell, playing it like a shortstop, stretched high into the air to get a gloved hand to the rubber. It dropped at his feet . . . well into payoff territory.

'Pug' Young a Standout

Flyers were potent all down the line. Anderson, who topped the point getters in the playoffs, Maher and Smitten stood out slightly over their teammates. You can't laugh off a pair of goals apiece.

'Pug' Young was tremendous in the stretch drive of the season. The Kreller line continued its fine play of recent games. Doug Lane went well. Flyers had a special cheering section comprising the inlured Bill Pettigrew, Louis Holmes and Gordon Buttrey. None of the trio was in uniform. But each had done his share along the way as opportunity presented itself.

In the centre of it all Frank Currie, an easterner who had steered a gang of westerners to their first WCHL crown.

All this heady stuff . . . and on the credit side, too.

To mar the picture that disgraceful scene in front of the Arena as thousands of fans tried to force a huge building through one relatively tiny entrance. If this is how to build up customer loyalty for the long haul we'll take ours country style.

Anyway . . . meet the Flyers, champions of the league. On them the crown looks good.

Basketball's Film on Rules May Bog Down

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, March 25.—(AP)—Big project on the book for the United States' Basketball Coaches Association is the filming of a movie that will show approved rules interpretations on which we all agree." . . . . The title probably will be "The Unfinished Movie." There still aren't too many signs of agreement . . . Doug Mills, reporting on the Big Nine's experiment with allowing coaches to talk to their players during time outs, claims the only complaint is that the coaches can't think of what to say . . . Similarly, Colgate's Karl Lawrence, describing his elaborate coaching charts, warned his colleagues, "Don't get so mixed up in statistics that you forget to coach."

IT SNOW FUN

The breakup of a hard winter prompted Alden Calkins, who beats the drums for the Hambletonian, to check up on whether horses trained in the sunny south or snowy north have been more successful in the August trotting classic . . . While southern training is beneficial in preparing for early racing in California, the results don't prove much . . . It may be that the late Walter Cox, who always did his training at Goshen, N.Y., was right in his theory that the stables shipped south not so much for the horses as for the comfort of the trainers.

SHORTS AND SHELLS

Bob Hannegan reveals that his St. Louis Cardinals will pay a $300,000 bill for scouting this season . . . Curly Lambeau, who first urrected his own version of the "winged T" formation for the Green Bay Packers' last fall, is having a quiet chuckle over the way other football coaches are going for it . . . Of course, the Packers did increase their yardage 48 per cent and scoring 74 per cent over the previous season, but maybe the players had something to do with that.

HORSES AND RIDERS strain to clear the obstacle at the famous Beecher's Brook jump in the Grand National Steeplechase at Aintree, England. Silver Fame, 8 to 1 favorite, couldn't clear the jump, but a 50-1 long-shot, Sheila's Cottage, had no trouble and won the big Irish Sweepstake event.

Canucks Come From Behind To Shade Lethbridge Sons

REGINA, March 25.—(CP)—Moose Jaw Canucks climbed into the [illegible] Wednesday night in their Western Canada junior hockey semi-final playoff with Lethbridge Native Sons when they defeated the Alberta champions 3-2 in the third game of their best-of-seven series.

While more than 4,000 fans witnessed the fray, Canucks came from behind twice to whip the Sons. The Saskatchewan champs faced the additional handicap of being minus one of their stars—defenceman Jim Bedard and winger Vic Kreklewetz. Both were out with injuries.

All the scoring in the third game of the series was concentrated in the first two periods. Sons took the lead midway through the opening period on a goal by Bill Ramsden oly to have the Canucks square the count a short time later with Jimmy Van Buskirk doing the scoring.

Ramsden came through with another tally shortly after the start of the second period but the Sons, favored in the pre-series betting to win out over their rivals, couldn't hold the edge. Don Johnston tied it up a little more than two minutes later, and then Harvey Stein came through with the winner four minutes later.

The teams now move to Lethbridge for games Saturday and Monday.

Hero of the night was Harvey Stein, rangy Moose Jaw centre, who slapped home the winning goal on Jackie McLeod's passout during a power-play at the eight-minute mark of the second period.

From then on Stein was like an octopus as he led checking forwards that broke up Lethbridge plays, and even a Moose Jaw penalty in the dying minutes of the game failed to break down Canucks.

Lineups:

Moose Jaw—Betker; Johnston, Coffin; Wylie; Juckes, Popien. Subs: R. Shave, Stein, McLeod, Van Buskirk, Lovett, Johnston, Vogan.

Lethbridge—Rodinyak; Lavell, Wood; Dorobroy; Brown, Ramsden. Subs: Murphy, McClair, Manson, Richardson, Milford, Holmes, Evans.

Officials—Dick Davis, and Gordie Hayes, Winnipeg.

Summary:

First Period: 1—Lethbridge, Ramsden 10:56; 2—Moose Jaw, Van Buskirk 12:06. Penalties—Evans (2), Coffin.

Second Period: 3—Lethbridge, Ramsden (Brown) 2:17; 4—Moose Jaw, Johnston (Wylie) 4:24; 5—Moose Jaw, Stein (McLeod) 8:11. Penalties—Wood, Stein, Holmes, Stein.

Third Period: Scoring—none. Penalties—Ramaden, Coffin.

Wings Shade Rangers In Bruising Cup Game

DETROIT, March 25.—(CP)—The second-place Detroit Red Wings hung on to grab a 2-1 decision from the fourth-place New York Rangers in the first game of their best-of-seven Stanley Cup semi-final Wednesday night.

A Red Wing drive late in the first frame netted them both their goals, by leftwingers Ted Lindsay and Jimmy Conacher who scored four minutes apart.

Lindsay potted Syd Abel's rebound in the open side of the cage. Conacher scored on a solo effort while two Rangers and one Detroiter served time after a tussle at the boards.

Abel and Bill Juzda came out of the scrap with major penalties for fighting. Tony Leswick drew a double minor for roughing and cross-checking, while Detroit's Gordon Howe took a minor for roughing but had returned to the ice when Conacher counted what proved to be the winning marker.

Another rough-house threatened half-way through the second period but ended promptly as Detroit's Jack Stewart and Rangers' Fred Shero were chased for roughing.

Bryan Hextall registered the home Ranger goal three and a half minutes after the final period started, ragging a 50-foot shot from out front, the puck barely missed Detroit goalie Harry Lumley's stick as it landed in the corner of the net.

Detroit, runner-up to Toronto in the regular season, thus was off on the right foot, as expected, against the fourth-place Rangers, who earned a position in the playoffs for the first time in six years.

Detroit dominated the play nearly all the way, except for a Ranger surge in the final period, when the New Yorkers gave Lumley 10 chances in the Red Wing net. Altogether Rayner had 28 saves and Lumley 19.

New York's worst break of the game came in the opening period when centre Don Raleigh got a shot past Lumley that bounced off a goalpost.

Detroit got full service throughout the game from defenceman Bill Quackenbush, who missed two of the last three regular season games with a sprained wrist.

Lineups:

New York—Rayner; Colville, Moe; Laprade; Kullman, Leswick. Subs: Edolla, Shero, Trucks; Hextall, Raleigh, Hextall, Lamirande, Gardner, Juzda, Slowinski.

Detroit—Lumley; Quackenbush, Stewart; Abel, Howe, Lindsay. Subs: Brunetteau, Reise, Lundy, Gauthier, Horeck, Kelly, McFadden, Conacher, Reibel, Reilly.

Third Period: 3—New York, Hextall (O'Connor, Leswick) 3:35. Penalty—Colville.

Leafs Tip Bruins With Nick Metz' Overtime Marker

Max Bentley Blazes Trail As Toronto Triumphs 5-4

By Fraser MacDougall

TORONTO, March 25. — (CP) — Veteran Nick Metz scored a dramatic goal after 17 minutes and two seconds of overtime Wednesday night to give Toronto Maple Leafs a 5-4 victory over Boston Bruins in the first game of their best-of-seven Stanley Cup semi-final series.

The sudden tally by the 33-year-old wheat farmer from Wilcox, Sask. sent the crowd of 12,982 into a tremendous uproar. They had watched tensely through the 17 minutes of nerve-wracking overtime play when both teams threw caution to the wind in their drive for the winning goal.

The Leafs, National Hockey League champions, had to fight from behind three times to send the game into overtime. They tied up one-goal margins in the first two periods and in the third had to overcome a two-goal lead.

Bruins, who wound up in third place in the National Hockey League standing, fought stubbornly. Led by veteran centre Milt Schmidt, a tower of strength going both ways, it looked at times as if they might get the jump on the NHL champions in the series.

BRIMSEK "RED HOT"

The Leafs blasted 53 shots at cool Frankie Brimsek in the Boston goal, 17 of them in the tingling overtime period when it looked as if they just couldn't get the puck past Mr. Zero. Brimsek had 26 shots on Vezina Trophy winner Turk Broda.

The winning goal by Nick Metz came from only a few feet in front of Brimsek. Metz took his scoring pass from centre Max Bentley.

The Bruins got their first goal, by Murray Henderson, in less than two minutes and it was 11 minutes before Leafs got even. Bill Ezinicki, who played a rousing game on right wing, tied it up. Rookie Ed Harrison put Bruins in front again in the second period and this time Bentley tied it for Leafs, almost 10 minutes later.

Appeared Hopeless

When Pat Egan and Henry Smith banged home goals before the third period was half over, it appeared all up with Leafs. But Syl Apps, veteran centre, tallied on a play with Wally Stanowski. A little more than a minute later defenceman Jimmy Thomson tied it up for Leafs on a 50-foot screened shot. It was his first goal of the season although he had 29 assists.

Hairy Hill 'Kids' Grab Table Tennis Honors

Three youngsters from Hairy Hill, Steve Ewanchuk, Roy Wygera and George Michalcheon motored 80 miles to Edmonton to take part in the city table tennis tournament Wednesday—and they didn't make the trip for nought.

Entertainment was first on their program, sport second, and their "tummies" third.

They trooped off to a picture show in the afternoon, missed dinner and then waded into the class of Edmonton juniors in the table tennis events. Then before returning home they put on the "feedbag".

When the junior event in the table tennis reached the semi-finals all three were still in there battling and the final was an all-Hairy Hill affair.

Ewanchuk emerged the winner over Wygera in a nip-and-tuck five-game battle, 21-19, 21-23, 20-24, 18-21 and 21-14, it was considered the best match of the night.

EDMONTONIAN BOWS

In the semi-final Ewanchuk eliminated Michaicheon 19-21, 21-17, 21-18, and Wygera defeated Walter Baydalo, Edmonton, 21-8 21-16.

The junior was the only event completed last night, but the semi-finals and finals of the senior competitions will be played Sunday and Tuesday, commencing at 2 o'clock at Recreation Centre.

The tournament is sponsored by the Edmonton Table Tennis Association in co-operation with the Recreation Centre.

Following are Sunday's games:

Ladies' singles final—June Boyse vs Audrey Hunter.

Men's singles semi-finals — Herman Martell vs Wil Boyse; Tom Inkster vs Hal Jones.

Men's doubles semi-finals — Wilf Boyse and Herman Martell vs Murray Phipps and Ken Simpson; Rollinger and Hal Jones vs Inkster and Norman Griffiths.

Mixed doubles and veterans event will also be run off.

The Magna Charta, granted by King John at Runnymede to English barons in 1215, has been described by historians as the "keystone of freedom."

Big Moments in Sport

25 Years Ago

From The Bulletin Sport Files

"It doesn't matter which team wins the series," said Duke Keats, as he and his Edmonton Eskimos watched Ottawa Senators and Vancouver Maroons battle in the third game of their semi-final series for the world's championship at Vancouver.

"I think we can win the Stanley Cup from either of them. It may be a hard battle, but I don't believe either will be as tough as Regina," he said.

The Senators won that game 3-2.

Many Edmonton fans will go to Vancouver for the Stanley Cup final.

The last event in the season's curling at the Capital Club will take the form of a novelty competition. All the players have been divided into four sections. Knockout play will prevail, with the winners of each section engaging in a playoff

No Action Taken Schmeling Appeal

WASHINGTON, March 25. — (BUP)—State department officials said Wednesday no action had been taken on a direct appeal to secretary of state George C. Marshall to allow former heavyweight champion Max Schmeling to come to this country from Germany for a comeback in the ring.

Fred Kirsch, Washington promoter who would sponsor bouts for Schmeling this summer, made the appeal by letter last Monday. State department officials said Schmeling has not applied in Germany for a visitor's visa.

Visas usually are issued only to German wives of GI's and Germans who have close relatives in this country. Visa officials are report.d to be cool toward the idea of permitting Schmeling entry to the U.S unless special army approval is granted.

FORT FRANCES COMES UP WITH "CINDERELLA" CLUB

By William Ivens

WINNIPEG, March 25.—(CP)—One nomination for the Cinderella team in Canadian amateur hockey this season will undoubtedly be Fort Frances Canadians. Canadians aren't a big-money club, but they're still some pumpkins.

Coach Gordie Fraser, the hockey veterair who masterminds the team, said Wednesday in an interview that Canadians managed to clear exactly $29.15 last season. This season the Canucks haven't taken in quite so much coin, Fraser figured they'd clear "about half that amount the way things stand now."

He said that the revenue from the senior club finances all the hockey teams—junior, juvenile, bantam and others—in the town of 5,000 population. He termed Canadians "probably the least professional of all the clubs" still in the running for the Allan Cup.

A resident of London, Ont., Fraser said that when he first received the offer to coach Canadians two years ago he had no idea where the town was located.

REAL BACKING

"I had to get in touch with a friend of mine to find out what the place was like," he added. Then he continued: "I've never seen a town like it for supporting the local club and I've been engaged in hockey in a lot of towns. The people there are really behind us to the limit."

Fraser felt that one reason Canadians have advanced to the Western Canada senior semi-finals is because of their "great club spirit." He noted that almost all the players had grown up together and are the best of friends.

"There are no cliques among my players," he added.

Several of the Canadians have caught the attention of the pro scouts. Among them are centre Bob Johnson, winger Walter Christianson and defenceman Sam Robertson, all approached on behalf of Eddie Shore's Springfield Indians.

Fraser predicted that if Canadians managed to dispose of Winnipeg Flyers in their present series, they would give the other Western finalists "a good run for their money."

Police Beating Is Charged

TORONTO, March 25.—(CP)—The Globe and Mail today, in a copyright front page story by Jean Poitras quotes the Ottawa-born laborer as saying he was beaten up the night of March 13 by Toronto police officers who took him into custody after a scuffle.

"For from eight to 10 minutes . . . I was kicked and beaten while six policemen stood by without raising a finger," Poitras says in his first person story. "They seemed amused by the brutality.

"Even when I lay on the police station floor, bleeding and bruised and dazed and pleaded with them for help, they just smiled.

TEETH KICKED OUT

"Three of my front teeth were kicked out. I held them in my hand so they could see. I was beaten some more."

First word of the incident came when John MacLeod, a university student, wrote Mayor Hiram McCallum that he and three friends saw policemen beating a man late March 13. The mayor promised an investigation.

The 26-year-old Poitras says in his story that he came here from Ottawa in January to look for work. He still wants to work here.

SELF-ADMITTED MURDERER ENDS LIFE WITH GUN

BOSTON, March 25.—(AP)—A man who telephoned police he was wanted for a San Francisco murder early today fired at two patrolmen through his locked hotel room door and then shot himself in the head.

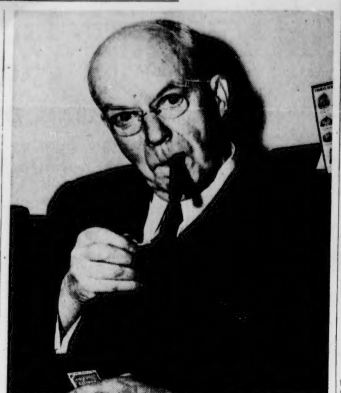

Police said the man called them on the telephone and said:

"I'm wanted for murder in San Francisco. Come up and get me. I've got plenty of ammunition."

When the two patrolmen called on him he fired two shots through his closed door.

First reports did not indicate whether the patrolmen were hit.

More than two dozen patrolmen surrounded the hotel and blocked off the fourth-floor corridors.

Extensions to Brewery Completed This Fall

Bottling department and other extensions to Sicks' Edmonton Brewery plant, costing about $400,000, should be completed by fall, George R. Whitmore, Regina, president of Sicks' Breweries Ltd., said Thursday.

Mr. Whitmore is in Edmonton for business conferences with George R. Howsam, manager and director of Sicks' Edmonton brewery.

Basement for the new plant extensions at Edmonton plant has been completed. Construction of upper storey has been held up for lack of structural steel but steel will soon be available, Mr. Whitmore said.

INTEREST IN OIL

President of Sicks' Breweries has just returned from California where he heard much interest expressed in Alberta oil discoveries.

"Edmonton is being talked about far more outside of this province than in Alberta," Mr. Whitmore said.

He said the fact the federal government at Ottawa and United States authorities have chosen Edmonton as a highly strategic centre for air operations is significant.

Blood and Strife Hit Holy Day

Rifles Bark as Christians Offer Prayer in Holy Land

By Carter L. Davidson

JERUSALEM, March 25.—(AP)—Christians knelt in prayer this Holy Thursday in Jerusalem, while around them rifles barked in the bitter strife between Arabs and Jews.

Holy-Week worshippers prayed in commemoration of Christ's last supper, his betrayal and arrest. While they knelt, gunfire clattered from an Arab village on a hillside where, the Bible says, Judas Iscarion hanged himself.

DANGER OF DEATH

The danger of death cut to a mere handful the number of Christians of Roman Catholic and Protestant faith who usually participate in day-long services.

At the spot on Mount Zion where Christ is believed by Christians to have had his last supper, Pontifical mass was scheduled by Archbishop Msgr. Arthur Hughes, nuncio of the Catholic Church of Cairo.

After Mass the churchmen were to walk to the Garden of Gethesemane for prayers at the spot where Christ is believed to have been betrayed by Judas and arrested by Roman soldiers.

Traditional night services in Gethesemane have been cancelled.

IMMUNITY PROMISED

Arab guards, however, have promised immunity to worshippers and will mount a sentry atop the old city hall. It is through a gate in this wall, the Bible says, that Christ walked on his triumphal re-entry into Jerusalem.

It is a day of celebration for the Jews, too. This Thursday is Purim, commemorating the legendary victory of Mordecai and Queen Esther over Haman, Persian premier of the time of Jewish residence there.

Manning Admits Loan For Hotel To City Group

Premier E. C. Manning said Wednesday in the legislature a loan had been made by the government's treasury branches to four Edmonton men for purchase of an hotel already built, not to build the hotel.

Mr. Manning said the $50,000 loan had been granted to purchase the hotel at Wainwright, Alta., and that it had been for a five-year period.

The premier said the loan still had a year to go and had been repaid except for $4,000. He added that present valuation of the hotel is $120,000 to $125,000.

W. J. Williams (Veterans—Edmonton) told the public accounts committee that the Edmonton men had put up $2,500 apiece and borrowed $50,000 from the treasury branches to obtain ownership of the hotel.

He said that he had not declared the loan was used to build the hotel but to purchase one already constructed.

Bank Clearings Show Increase

Clearing house figures this week showed an increase of $2,809,523 over total for the same week a year ago.

And police today were unable to offer any new developments in the recent $2,700 safeblowing at McGavin's bakery although they admit they are investigating new leads.

Assaulted was William Mukanik, 10032 105A street.

British Steamship Blamed in Accident

LONDON, March 25.—(Reuters)—The British steamship Stormont was blamed in Admiralty Court Wednesday for the collision between it and the 13,000-ton Empire Brent, carrying war brides to Canada, in the Mersey River at Liverpool, November, 1946.

The action was brought by owners of the Stormont and the owners of the 210 head of cattle and some horses, almost all of which were lost when the Stormont began to sink. The court found the Stormont was alone to blame by coming up on the wrong side.

The 856 brides and children were brought back to London and placed in Canadian hostels until the Empire Brent was repaired.

Production Rolls Along Regardless

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(CP) Industrial production in the United States rolled along at the highest rate in peacetime history during February despite bad weather the federal reserve board reported Wednesday. Output of factories and mines was 93 per cent above the 1935-39 average.

B.C. CERTAINLY IS GREAT PLACE TO GO TO JAIL

VANCOUVER, March 25.—(CP)—An ancient British Columbia law provides that debtor-prisoners may be supplied beer in jail—and for free.

An inquiring reporter found the 90-year-old law, but there is no record of anyone ever demanding his free beer or ale.

The statute, based on a law originally adopted in England in 1739, is "an act respecting arrest and imprisonement for debt."

Eric Pepler, deputy attorney-general for British Columbia, said yesterday an "interesting situation" might develop if a prisoner—with a smart lawyer—insisted on being served beer.

"But I don't think that will happen," he said with fingers crossed.

Man Surrenders, Magistrate Lenient

A man who gave himself up to police earned clemency by his action.

Werner Dweladorfm, 12906 61 Street, was charged with obtaining $23.50 unemployment insurance by making a false statement.

He was sentenced to 14 days imprisonment instead of 28 by Magistrate A. L. Millar because he gave himself up.

Britons Holiday Bent For Blue Sky Easter

By Alan Harvey

LONDON, March 25.—(CP)—Rising temperatures and the promise of a "Blue Sky Easter" today sent Britons surging to fields and beaches in a gay holiday mood.

In prospect, it was the largest exodus since pre-war days as city dwellers jammed railway station and airports in a race to get away from it all.

While families, with children carrying pets or spades and pails, queued for hours before trains were due. Deck chairs and rows of bathing tents blossomed at seaside resorts.

Margate, Ramsgate and other resorts reported record advance reservations for the long week-end.

Eighty-four extra trains carried passengers to the south coast.

The air ministry said that sunshine and clear skies were likely to prevail through Easter Monday.

Britons welcomed the "little summer" as a relief from austerity and increasingly gloomy talk about international developments.

AIRPORTS CROWDED

Among the holidaymakers were hundreds flying from airports in the London area to the continent, Eire and the Channel Islands. Air services to Paris doubled and all seats in planes were reserved.

Holiday sports included horse-racing, soccer and speedway racing in the London area. Most villages and towns scheduled local celebrations.

The King and Queen, with Princess Margaret and Queen Mother Mary, are spending the holidays at Windsor Castle. Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh will be at Windlesham Moor, near Sunningdale.

Today, in the age-old Pre-Easter ceremony, the King distributed Royal Maundy money at Westminster Abbey.

LOYALTY FICKLE, SO IS LUCK

ATLANTA, March 25.—(AP)—A blind war veteran had the tractor he cherished today, because loyalty is not so fickle as luck.

Honer J. Curry came here from Sandyville, W.Va., to purchase the tractor at a war assets administration sale. It was the only one available. He hoped to use it in strip coal mining near his home.

But about 2,000 other veterans wanted the tractor. In the draw for priority, 1,159 came out ahead of Curry. And then each in turn stepped aside. Curry got his tractor.

AND IN ALL COLORS, TOO

If It's Eggs for Easter These Hens Will Lay 'Em

MONROE, N.Y., March 25.—(AP)—If an egg hunt makes an Easter, it's a year-round holiday for the five Brower children. Browe. chickens lay eggs of all colors.

It is not chance, however. Ward Brower Jr., their father, has spent more than 20 years breeding and cross-breeding rare and common fowls, always with the idea of achieving what he calls "Easter egg chickens."

He finally has done it. The remote grandparents of his chickens (which look like slightly rakish versions of the ordinary barnyard types) were the rare, Araukanian fowls, found among Chilean Indians. Not only were Araukanians without tails and with feather ear muffs, but—alone among the chicken family—they laid blue eggs.

Brower, a chicken fancier since childhood, acquired three Araukanians 20 years ago. To his dismay he found the hens laid common brown eggs.

He is a persistent man, this 42-year-old Brower, so he began breeding his Araukanians back to their native habit of blue eggs.

"Those Chilean Indians thought everything the white man did was perfect, so they crossed their fowl with European breeds," Brower said. "Finally I managed to get some eggs with a little color in them, and just keep going from them."

Today he has a small flock which daily produces a few dozen real Easter eggs, pastel blues, greens, soft pinks and ruddy rouge. He even has coffee-colored eggs which he says in time he can darken almost to black. Now that he's off to a positive start on the brighter colors, Brower is sure he can get vivid blues and reds.

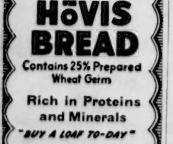

"Think of it," he said dreamily, "this will change the whole industry."

Meanwhile Brower lets the older of his own brood enjoy a daily egg hunt.

"They love to gather them—it's a real game with them," he said. "Any child will love an egg hunt in the chicken house—when the eggs are all different colors."

HE FLEW ON HUNCHES

Famous Bush Pilot of 30's Leading Light of RCAF

By HARLO JONES

One of Canada's most famous pilots visited Edmonton Wednesday.

He is Group Captain Z. L. Leigh, RCAF, who is enroute to Vancouver where he will take over the post of commanding officer of 12 Group headquarters of Northwest Air Command.

Leigh began his flying career in 1926 and since then has logged over 10,000 flying hours—or something like a year and a half of solid flying.

He doesn't know exactly how much time he has spent in the air, "I haven't kept track of it very closely the last two or three years," he admitted.

Edmontonians will probably remember him as one of the pioneer "bush pilots" who flew out of Edmonton during the early 30's.

The famous flyer is reticent about telling of his experiences, though.

"Ask Wop May if you want to know anything about that time, he said, "ife can probably tell you more about it than I can."

In 1937 Leigh became the first and only pilot on the staff of the newly-formed Trans-Canada Airlines, and pioneered most of the line's present routes.

During the war, he returned to the RCAF to organize ferry and transport services.

Earlier this year he was awarded the McKee trophy, given each year to the man who has contributed the most to Canadian aviation.

He was born in England, but came to Alberta when he was three years old.

He lived in Lethbridge until he began his flying career.

He was officer commanding Goose Bay in Labrador prior to his present appointment.

Labor Fights New Alta. Act

Canadian Trades and Labor Congress delegation headed by President George McDougall of the Alberta Federation of Labor is appearing before the agriculture committee of the provincial legislature today.

The labor delegation will make representations to the house committee on provisions of the proposed amendments to the Alberta Labor Act announced last Saturday.

Delegation from the Edmonton Trades and Labor Council appointed at meeting Wednesday includes vice-presidents Alfred Farmilo and Malcolm Ainslie of the Alberta Federation of Labor and Herbert G. Turner, general secretary of the Edmonton Trades and Labor Council.

Provincial committee of the Canadian Congress of Labor headed by Jan Lakenan is also sending a delegation to the legislature.

The Congress is making strong protests against provisions of the new bill providing penalties for illegal strikes and lockouts.

Ashby Promises Action On Grierson Area Mail Muddle

Will Fight to Last Ditch For Delivery Service, He Says

If Pat Ashby, Social Credit MP for Edmonton East could spare time from his spring farm work he'd mount a horse and deliver mail to the residents of Grierson Estate area.

Just returned from attending the session of the Dominion parliament in Ottawa, Mr. Ashby declared Thursday:

"I'll fight to the last ditch to have mail delivery service provided for the people in Grierson Estate area."

Continuing, the fighting MP said:

"It is my duty to see that the will of the people is done . . . to see that they secure the services for which they pay taxes.

"It is the function of the post office department to deliver mail."

Mr. Ashby said he believed good postal services could actually be provided by a return to the old penny postage rate.

"They would charge five cents now if they thought they could get away with it," he said.

Mail can be delivered now more quickly and cheaper than ever before, the MP said.

"If postal services were under free enterprise with two companies competing, the people in Grierson Estate area would get delivery service in a hurry. But it can't be done under a bureaucratic setup apparently," he said.

"I think The Edmonton Bulletin has done a wonderful thing in drawing attention to the post office department's indifference to the wishes of war veterans' families in the Grierson district. That's where the freedom of the press comes in," said Mr. Ashby.

"If I had the time I would deliver mail to the Grierson estate myself. I cannot get away from spring farm work, however," he concluded.

Terry Stubbert, Edmonton Bulletin carrier boy, won high praise from Mr. Ashby for volunteering to deliver mail to Grierson estate residents along with his newspapers.

The meeting was addressed by H. C. Cooper of Norwich Union Life Insurance company.

Annual meeting of the local chapter will be held April 26, and of the provincial society on May 15.

Next meeting of the Edmonton chapter will be held in Corona hotel, April 12, at 6 p.m.

No Cinch, This Life Says Mayor Ainlay

By Thomas Graham

Being Mayor of Edmonton isn't the "soft touch" most folks think it is.

Assigned to have a "look see" at the role played by Chief Magistrate Harry D. Ainlay in guiding civic affairs, this reporter is convinced nothing short of Solomon's wisdom, and the patience of Job can bring about a satisfactory solution to the problems he confronts daily.

And for my part he can have it—

". . . I don't want it . . . it's not right for me—or for you either—unless you go for weird requests, never ending complaints, a 15-hour working day, irregular meals, sleepless nights, disrupted home life and countless other "headaches".

WORKING DAY

Mayor Ainlay reaches his office each morning at nine.

His lunch hour is invariably cut short; he seldom gets away from the Civic block before six, "and it's generally 11:30 p.m. or midnight before I can call it a day," he says.

He is regularly asked to play the role of Dan Cupid, or called upon to reconcile estranged families, or to find pals and locate missing persons.

It's unusual if a day passes without his receiving requests for telephones, housing accommodation, new roads and sidewalks, light, water, gas, new buses, sewers and the like.

SOCIAL LIFE

Invitations to teas, luncheons, dinners, social and public functions, to address gatherings or meetings are so numerous, "that days of week aren't sufficient to accommodate them," says Mayor Ainlay.

Daily requests pour in seeking assistance, food and clothing parcels for hungry and needy Europeans. Misplaced persons, tourists, civic officials and industrial firms are forever inquiring about Edmonton, its facilities, prospects and such.

One of the more unusual requests was from the daughter of a dying man in London, England, who sought to have one Canadian apple sent to her father before he passed on.

Mayor Ainlay turned the letter over to a local departmental store who forwarded a case of apples.

ODD REQUESTS

Another young man from Auckland, New Zealand, asked that beer bottle labels of all beverage sold in Edmonton be sent to him.

An Ottawa girl requested the signature of the mayor while another desired the coat of arms of local military units.

"If possible we look after all request," said Mayor Ainlay, "and always reply to all letters."

Elected to office in November 1945, and returned for a two year term last November, Mayor Ainlay has encountered all sorts of complaints, requests, and verbal blasts but he takes them all in his stride.

"This Mayor business isn't all that it's cracked up to be," says Mayor Ainlay. "If someone gets a mud puddle in front of their place, first thing they do is phone me.

"People seem to think the mayor has the power to do anything and all they have to do is ask.

"When I inform them I'm unable to comply with their request because the authority invested in this office doesn't permit it, they get quite annoyed.

"If I had the power to do what most people seem to think they'd be chasing me out of town for being a dictator," he said.

NO HOME LIFE

Proud of his wife and his home, which he built himself in 1919, Mayor Ainlay's only "beef" about his job is, "it doesn't allow my wife and me any home life. She has never been able to invite anyone over and be sure I'd be there and countless are dinners that got cold waiting for me."

Mayor Ainlay was born in January, 1885, at Brussels, Huron County, Ont.

He came to Edmonton in September 1910 and has been a farmer, real estate man, businessman and for 31 years was a teacher in the city. He abdicated this profession on becoming mayor.

Next meeting of the Edmonton chapter will be held in Corona hotel, April 12, at 6 p.m.

Red Cross Appeal Climbs Steadily Towards Objective

Red Cross appeal for funds in northern Alberta passed the two-thirds mark Wednesday, according to campaign chairman Walker Blake.

Contributions in this section of Alberta now total $50,626.49, and officials expect the objective of $75,000 will be reached by March 31.

The major contribution received recently was that of Edmonton Civic Employees totalling $2,500.

Medical Services Bill Is Approved

The private bills committee of the Alberta legislature, Wednesday approved a bill asking for incorporation of Medical Services (Alberta).

The bill would provide for a prepaid medical plan to be applicable to employer-employe groups and to municipalities within the province.

No indication is contained in the legislation as to rates to be charged to subscribers, but Dr. W. Bramley-Moore, registrar of the Alberta College of Physicians and Surgeons, who appeared in support of it, said doctors would be paid on a Dominion-wide fee basis.

Only section of the legislation which brought forth any protest was one which committee members thought might lead to forcing minorities in municipalities to come under provisions of the act.

29-YEAR-OLD WOMAN MISSING

Police are searching for 29-year-old Evelyn Buckley, who has been reported missing from home since Monday.

She is five feet, five inches tall, weighs 130 pounds and has black hair.

She was wearing thick lensed rimless glasses, light blue green coat with gold studs on the belt.

The woman had been working as a clerk in a lumber camp.

No Starvation Hooke Reports

There was no evidence of starvation in England, Hon. A. J. Hooke minister of economic affairs, said Wednesday.

He had been asked to comment on a dispatch from England protesting the gloomy picture he had drawn of food conditions in that country while making his report on his recent trip to England.

Claiming his remarks had been "casual", Mr. Hooke paid tribute to British hospitality and to the spirit of the British people who had entertained him.

"No other nation could have gone through what England has in the past eight years and still come up smiling and determined," he said.

There was plenty of fish and fowl available in England, he added, but the food lacked variety.

POW'S Return

Drugless Therapists Delayed Another Year

Physiotherapists found a ready champion in one of their own profession, Mrs. Rose Wilkinson (SC-Calgary), on Wednesday.

Committee on private bills after suggesting on Wednesday morning that legislation on behalf of naturopaths be referred back to the sponsors for amendment, met again on Wednesday afternoon and found the amended bill waiting for their consideration.

Efforts of the members of the Canadian Physiotherapy Association to disassociate themselves from the legislation, made by telegram and letter to the committee, and by personal appearance of one of their number in the morning, were recognized by specific exemption from the bill.

This did not satisfy Mrs. Wilkinson whose suggestion that "physiotherapy" be stricken from the bill, wherever it appeared was defeated. She returned gamely to the attack however voting a vigorous "No" to each section of the legislation.

Alberta's drugless therapists will have to wait another year before they will achieve the establishment of the "Naturopathic Association of Alberta."

BILL RETURNED

The legislative private bills committee after discussing a bill which sought the incorporation of this association decided to return the bill to naturopaths and to the legislative counsel for amendments.

Physiotherapists, who already come under Dominion charter, took strong exception to the clauses in the legislation which would have included their profession within the association. They were represented by Miss Helen Martin, Physiotherapist of the University hospital, who was supported by letters and telegrams from physiotherapists in Calgary and Edmonton.

Mrs. Rose Wilkinson (SC Calgary) said she was a licensed physiotherapist and joined in the protests against the passage of the bill.

Cabinet Split On Private Bill

The Alberta cabinet split over a private bill in the legislature on Wednesday.

Application of the Alberta College of Physicians and Surgeons for incorporation as Medical Services (Alberta) Inc., contained compulsory features opposed by many of her constituents, Mrs. Rose Wilkinson (SC Calgary) told the legislature and asked to have it referred back to the private bills committee for amendment.

When a vote was called Speaker Dawson could not determine from the voice vote as to the outcome and asked for a standing vote. Cabinet ministers supporting Mrs. Wilkinson were Premier Ernest Manning, Hon. A. J. Hooke, Hon. Lucien Maynard and Hon. Ivan Casey. Other ministers in the house at the time opposed the premier.

Mrs. Wilkinson won her point, but at a private bills committee meeting held later Wednesday, the legislation went back to the house unchanged.

Jury Returns Open Verdict In Crane Death

A coroner's jury Wednesday returned an open verdict in the death of a city workman March 13.

Inquest was investigating death of Daniel Letcher, 1945 82 street, who was killed when a mobile crane which he was operating toppled.

An official of the construction company testified he believed crane toppled when ice under one side of it gave way.

Dr. J. W. Bridges, who crawled into the cab, said he believed Letcher was dead before he was freed.

Dangerous Driving Draws Stiff Fines, Licenses Suspended

Dangerous driving charges brought fines totalling $125 and ten months suspension of driving privileges to two drivers in police court.

John Brodie, 9813 107 street, paid $75 and lost his license for six months. It was his second conviction.

Vegetable Famine Predicted for City

By Bea Thrifty

Black cloud of a prospective fresh vegetable famine is looming on the horizon.

No more cabbages or carrots will be imported from the United States.

Present supplies will last about two weeks and at the end of that time we will see the last fresh vegetable on the market until local produce appears.

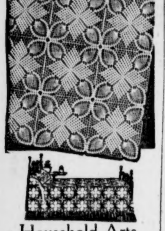

Meantime city prices are levelled at cabbage 6 to 8 cents a pound, and carrots, 9 cents a pound.

Why Grow Old?

GOOD NUTRITION and regular physical examinations are as important for young people like Actress Gail Russell as they are for the very young and older persons.

By Josephine Lowman

Too often the habit of an annual physical examination is reserved for infancy or middle age. The big gap in between is overlooked with the thought, "Oh they are young. There is nothing wrong with them." Actually, this is not true.

The ages in between middle age and infancy are subject to definite maladies. Besides, in young manhood and womanhood the foundations of future health are being laid. This makes this period extremely important in any health program.

In this age group poor posture has not yet become hopeless and good habits in nutrition build for future vitality. Tuberculosis is a definite hazard for these young people who are apt to sleep too little and to play and work too hard.

Many colleges recognize this fact. Cooper Union, in New York, gives an annual physical examination to its students as part of their health program. Dr. Edwin Burdell, director of The Cooper Union, says, "Educational institutions must assume definite responsibility in the field of preventative medicine."

Of the students examined at this school, twenty per cent were found to have ailments which could be remedied. The college itself does not give treatment but calls the need of it to the student's attention and refers them to specialists.

This is not only helpful in overcoming physical defects but builds a valuable health consciousness in young people who are usually unaware of the value of hygienic living and health care until it is far too late to profit by it as they could have in earlier years.

Youth is generally so abounding in energy that good health is taken for granted and years pass before the individual recognizes what a superb gift and a keen edged weapon fine health really is.

Rice Back on Market Boon to Housewives

Flip a bit of imagination into your cookery—and economize at the same time by making use of rice.

During the war-years a widely mourned casualty—rice is back to stay.

Prices are levelled and wholesalers say there will be no change for at least six months.

Augment your limited meat purchases for the week with rice. It adds body and flavor.

Make creamy rice puddings, fry it, boil it or bake it—it's delectable and nutritious any way you choose to serve it.

RICE AND MEATBALL CASSEROLE

1 pound ground beef
1 tablespoon minced onion
½ cup raw rice
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon basil
1/3 cup grated cheese
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
⅔ cup milk

Mix thoroughly with hands to blend all ingredients. Shape into small balls, a little smaller than a golf ball.

Fry a few at a time in 2 tablespoons shortening or salad oil. Put into casserole.

To 2 cans condensed tomato soup add 2 cups water, ½ cup chopped green pepper, ¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.

Bake uncovered in hot oven. Mix in ½ cup cooked peas and 3 or 4 carrots. Cover and bake 30 minutes more.

Serves six.

* * *

PORK CHOPS WITH RICE

4 pork chops
1 onion, chopped
½ cup rice, cooked
1 tin condensed tomato soup

Brown chops in frying pan. Add onion and brown. Put a mound of cooked rice on top of each chop. Pour tomato soup over, letting it trickle down over chops.

Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour.

* * *

RICE SAUSAGE DISH

1 cup cooked rice
½ pound sausage meat
1 cup cracker crumbs
½ cup tomato sauce
1 tablespoon fat
3 tablespoon chopped green pepper
1 tablespoon minced onion
¾ tablespoon salt
Dash of pepper

Fry sausage, which has been separated into small pieces, in the fat, stirring it until a light brown. When done add a tablespoon water and stir a moment to loosen all brown particles from the pan.

Mix all ingredients thoroughly and toss lightly into a pan. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake for 45 minutes at 374 degrees.

* * *

RICE SUPPER DISH

1 tin tomatoes
1 medium onion, chopped
4 chops or 1 pound sausage

3¾ cups milk
4/5 cups white sugar
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup chopped pitted dates

Return to oven until marshmellows are melted.

Grease casserole well.

All Orange Prices Are To Be Based On California Cost

OTTAWA, March 25.—(CP)—To prevent Canadian importers bidding excessive prices for oranges from points elsewhere than California, the Prices Board Wednesday announced a system basing all prices on those obtainable at the California Fruit Growers' Exchange.

Under the new system, the importing wholesaler's price of any oranges will be limited to the price at which he could sell the same variety, size and pack of California oranges purchased from the California exchange, recognized as the pricing centre for the world.

Actually, the board statement said, the great majority of oranges sold in Canada come from California.

Nine-Months-Old Baby Will Want Food to Chew

YOUR BABY AND MINE

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

The baby, once established on sieved foods, gets along so well that the mother is reluctant to make any change. But all of child care involves a succession of changes and the mother had best initiate the new steps.

After eight to nine months of age, it is well to begin offering some foods which the child will have to chew. He may not have more than two teeth, but he will be able to make way with some such food as zwieback, maybe dipped in his formula, or an arrowroot cracker which dissolves easily in the mouth.

He should have this experience even if he has to work hard to reduce this food to a swallowable mass.

Before this he will have had fine meat puree, made for babies, and at nine months there is no harm in trying some of the coarser cut meats, mixed with vegetables. They are cooked so long that they demand little chewing.

Sometimes the baby acts highly indignant when he finds these strange particles in his mouth. He may spit them out violently and look with terrible suspicion at future spoonfuls offered to him. If his reaction is violent, then wait a week or so and try again.

INCREASE AMOUNT

But a spoonful of the coarser type food along with the sieved food and he may accept this without rancor. Keep on increasing the amount of the coarser foods (keep two cans of the two types going at the same time) and he'll get used to the new texture.

Later he may be introduced to cubes of meat, or whole peas or beans or a sliver of carrot. If such a food is laid on his serving plate he'll pick it up, curiously, and thrust it into his mouth. Having done this himself he will not object to its newness but will masticate it with enjoyment. One baby I know consumes a large portion of whole peas by lifting them one or two at a time with his fingers.

Once the child has accepted the larger particles in his mouth he should be graduated from sieved foods and given vegetables or fruits mashed, not too finely, with a fork.

Chunks of toast, bits broken from a cracker, sections of orange, these are all ways of helping the child to use his teeth and grow accustom-

Systematic Housekeeping Saves Toil and Trouble

DOROTHY DIX SAYS—

DEAR MISS DIX: I have always taken pride in our home and have worked from morning until night to make it like a home, but my husband tells me that I do nothing at all and he only wishes that he could take life easy the way I do.

That gets me down at I have none of the modern household conveniences and have to launder twelve shirts a week and all the sheets and heavy bedspreads.

I am often so tired I could drop, but if I ask him why he doesn't dry the dishes for me once in a while, he answers: "When the day comes when your work is as hard as mine, I'll wipe the dishes."

He works in an office where he sits down all day, but I jump from job to job. He thinks I am inefficient because I work eight hours a day just doing my own housework. What do you think?

M.E.

ANSWER: I agree with your husband that you must dawdle if you put in eight hours a day keeping a small house and cooking for two people, especially as you have no children to track in mud and scatter their clothes and playthings all over the place.

Think this over and I believe you will realize that you make extra work for yourself by having no system.

I used to know a woman whose house was always in such a state of confusion that there was never a place to sit down, or even to move about without danger of falling over a chair or something that was likely to break your legs.

There was never a meal on time in her home. The children's clothes were always in the wash just going to be washed, and she always had to dash out at the last minute to buy the groceries for supper, and she was the hardest worked woman of whom you ever heard.

The reason of it was that she never finished a job. She would sweep a little on a floor, but not finish the room. She would half make a bed and then go off after something else. She would darn one stocking and leave the other with holes in it. Maybe that is the way you do your work and it explains why it takes you eight hours to do a two-hour job.

As for your husband telling you that he wishes he had a soft job like yours, that is what every man in the world says to his wife, and every man believes it, and that is because other people's troubles always seem lighter than our own.

It is a pity that husbands and wives can't swap jobs every now and then. Then they would find out what the other was up against.

Ten Women Most Admired By Women Across Country

Who are the ten women most admired by Americans today?

William A. Lydgate and the Gallup Poll found the answer to that question.

From coast to coast interviewers asked men and women in all walks of life, "What woman living today in any part of the world that you have heard of or read about do you admire the most?"

"The winner by a wide margin is Eleanor Roosevelt, who was named by more than three times as many people as the next most-admired woman, Sister Kenny.

"It is interesting to note that no motion-picture actress is among the top ten, although a famous radio star, Kate Smith, is represented.

"Nor are any women educators or college presidents, stage actresses, sportswomen or American society women ranked among the first ten.

"The leading choices of men interviewed are identical with those of the women polled, indicating that when a woman has praiseworthy qualities she is admired equally by men and women.

"Six women tied for eleventh place: Queen Elizabeth of England; Marian Anderson the Negro singer; Actress Betty Grable; congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas; Margaret Truman, daughter of the president; and the Duchess of Windsor.

"Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of the late president is the woman most admired by Americans. She is a popular newspaper columnist and is U.S. Representative to the United Nations General Assembly.

"Sister Elizabeth Kenny, Australian-born nurse, is famous for devising the Kenny method of treating infantile paralysis victims.

"Madame Chiang Kai-Shek, Wellesley College graduate and third on the list, is the attractive, astute wife of the leader in China's ruling party.

"Clare Booth Luce was next. Author and playwright, she became nationally known during her two terms as a Congresswoman from Connecticut.

"Helen Keller, the fifth in popularity, has been blind and deaf since the age of nineteen months, but is famous the world over as a lecturer and writer.

"Princess Elizabeth, who received next place on the list, is now the Duchess of Edinburgh. She has won admiration in America for her charm, poise and unassuming manner.

"Dorothy Thompson, influential political commentator and columnist since 1936 was seventh. She first gained fame as a foreign correspondent.

"Eighth among the most admired women was Kate Smith, favorite of millions of listeners, who made her radio debut in 1931. She began singing in a church choir at the age of four.

"Bess Wallace Truman, wife of President Harry S. Truman, America's first Lady was ninth. She is widely admired for her simplicity and dignity.

"Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, achieved tenth place, Ruler of the far-flung Dutch empire, she has guided Holland for fifty years and through two World Wars."

ALWAYS READY FOR HIS MEALS

SCIENCE has proved there are certain food elements everyone needs for health. If there aren't enough of them in a child's food, serious things can happen—such as loss of appetite, stunted growth, soft bones, poor teeth, faulty nerves, defective eyesight.

Ovaltine supplements the diet with elements frequently deficient in ordinary foods. Three servings of Ovaltine furnish a significant portion of a child's daily requirements of Vitamins A, B1, C, D, Riboflavin (B2), and Niacin and Minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron.

In addition it provides the basic food substances—complete proteins to build muscle, nerve and body cells —high-energy foods for vitality and endurance. It thus acts as an insurance against food deficiencies that retard normal growth.

So if your child eats poorly, is thin, underpar, perhaps nervous, why not try delicious Ovaltine for normal growth and better appetite.

BRIDGE

Don't Concentrate Wholly on System

By William E. McKenney

Beginners at contract are usually concerned about what system of bidding they should study. But today contract is played so generally that bridge writers are forced to build systems around winning tactics of good players. Bidding is important, but it does no good to get into a game contract and not know how to play the cards.

A surprising number of players would miss on today's hand for failing to count their tricks.

We can win the ace of spades and ruff a spade. If the hearts break 3-2, we will make four heart tricks. If the club finesse works we will have eight, and the ace of diamonds makes nine.

How are we to get the tenth? Shall we depend upon finding the king of diamonds in the East hand, or should we try to set the long club?

	♠ 6 5 ♥ 7 4 3 ♦ A 6 2 ♣ A Q 8 5 3
♠ K Q J 7 ♥ 4 ♦ 10 8 ♣ K J 8 3	W E S Dealer	♠ 10 9 8 ♥ Q J 9 ♦ 10 9 7 ♣ J 10 7 2
	♠ A 3 2 ♥ A K 8 5 3 ♦ Q 4 3 ♣ 6 4

Lesson Hand—E-W vul.

South	West	North	East
1 ♥	1 ♠	2 ♣	Pass
2 ♥	2 ♠	3 ♥	Pass
4 ♥	Pass	Pass	Pass

Opening—♣ K 8 5

First we should try to set the long club, so we will let West hold the opening lead of the king of spades. When West continues with the queen of spades, we win that with the ace. We should not ruff the third spade yet.

We first take one round of trumps, then lead the four of clubs and finesse the queen, lead the four of hearts from dummy and win with the king. Now there is only one trump out and it is high. Our next play should be the six of clubs to dummy's ace, come back with the three of clubs and trump it with the three of hearts.

Now it is time to ruff the small spade, then lead the five of clubs and trump it with the five of hearts. We go over to the ace of diamonds and lead the good club. Whether East trumps or not we are going to discard the four of diamonds from the South hand. Now there is no way to keep us from making another trick with the eight of hearts.

This hand is proof of the importance of learning to count your tricks as well as to time your play.

PHILADELPHIA, March 25. — (AP)—A strike of 10,000 Pennsylvania railroad firemen and roundhouse employes was called Wednesday by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers for March 31. Commons Adjourns For Easter Recess

OTTAWA, March 25. — (CP) — Parliament adjourned last night for the Easter recess amid formal procedure which contrasted sharply to the sometimes bitter debate of the pre-adjournment sitting.

Rt. Hon. Thibaudeau Rinfret, chief justice of the supreme court of Canada, gave the King's assent in the solemn senate chambers to a number of bills which caused acrimonious debate among the people's representatives.

Among the bills given royal assent in the sombre Senate chamber was a measure authorizing the government to continue the collection of the 25 per cent excise tax which has been in force since the dollar-conservation program was inaugurated Nov. 18. The bill survived a strenuous opposition attack in the Commons.

BILLS APPROVED

Also approved were bills continuing some of the government's main wartime controls.

Before the formality of the assent was gone through, members of the Commons agreed to extend Easter recess until April 5. The Senate is adjourned until April 19.

The bills given assent included measures to extend domestic rent and eviction controls and such price controls as remain.

In the last-minute proceedings there was less than customary attendance in the chambers. Western members had the assurances of Prime Minister Mackenzie King that their plane-passage home for the recess would be paid by the government.

TIME TO SPARE

As a result, many of them left their desks before the Ontario and Quebec members, who had plenty of time to spare to catch the last train leaving the capital for the night.

52 Nations Sign Trade Charter

Argentina, Russia Exceptions As Agreement Is Accepted

HAVANA, March 25.—(CP)—The world set out today on another attempt to keep the wheels of international trade moving freely. Argentina, Russia and countries in the Russian zone of influence were important exceptions as 52 powers signed an international trade charter which has three main purposes: to promote world trade; improve living standards and keep men employed. Turkey's signature, expected within days, will make 53 signatory countries.

MUST BE RATIFIED

The charter, designed chiefly to discourage members from discriminating against each other in their import and export policies, and to prevent two-way trade pacts which might detrimentally affect the world's economy, becomes operative when ratified by 20 or more parliaments. It was hammered out in conferences which opened last Nov. 22. Canada, represented by L. Dana Wilgress, ambassador to Switzerland, was one of the leaders in its framing.

Whether the Havana charter works will depend, its authors concede, on the good faith shown by participants in putting its principles into effect. In simple, language, it outlines trade practices that are beneficial or damaging to international trade and countries adopting the code pledge to help establish good practices and discontinue bad ones as soon as possible.

Monhts of disagreeing among conference participants preceded yesterday's signing, climaxed with Argentina's withdrawal from the conference because many Argentine exceptions were not incorporated in the pact. Poland, one of the 60 original participants, also refused to sign.

LIE HAILS SIGNING

The signing was hailed by Trygve Lie, secretary-general of the United Nations, as a "momentous landmark" and a "great achievement." In a message from Lake Success, N.Y., to the final session yesterday, Lie said the achievement of Havana "stands in splendid contrast to the tragic failures of the years between the world wars."

KIDS BLAMED FOR NEAR FIRE

Children are believed to have been responsible for a near fire in an Edmonton home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Szakow, 11848 — 79 street, reported to police they had found a wad of burning paper between storm and house windows of their home.

Police said today their investigation led them to believe the fire was the work of prankish children.

House Rages As Attlee Firm on Ousting Reds

By James McCook

LONDON, March 25. — (CP) — Prime Minister Attlee today ended a raging Commons debate by citing the Canadian espionage inquiry in support of the Labor government's ban on the employment of Communists, fellow-travellers or Fascists in secret work.

Attlee replied to the angry assault on the government's policy by William Gallacher, veteran Communist member for West Fife, who said that United States multimillionaires sought to use Britain as an advance base in a war on the Soviet Union.

PROTEST SHOUTED

If war came "the Royal Family probably will go to Ottawa and the people will be left to perish," Gallagher asserted amid shouted protests from both sides of the Commons.

Both Conservative and Labor members asked the government to use carefully powers to remove Communists, fellow-travellers and Fascists from posts where they should imperil the security of the state.

Attlee replied that no general purge was planned and all cases will be examined to ensure fair treatment but, at the same time to protect security.

But Attlee insisted that "as long as there is a possibility of war we must have defences and those defences must be preserved."

The government must look at "the sapping from within" and apart from Communists and Fascists there are also crypto-Communists.

SERIOUS TIMES

"We are living in very serious times. I deplore these subversive movements. If they creep into the civil service they are enemies of the government service. I might be accused of many things, but I cannot be accused of e er trusting the Communist party."

Attlee announced appointment of an advisory body to examine civil servants before whom any civil servant suspected of Communist or Fascist activities could state his case.

Truman to Act In Coal Strike

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(AP)—President Truman said today he will take whatever steps are necessary—and possible under the law—to settle the United States coal strike.

He made that comment to a press conference when asked about the board he has appointed to determine the facts in the dispute.

The board was appointed, Truman explained, when the federal mediation and conciliation service failed to get an agreement between the coal industry and the United Mine Workers (Ind.)

The fact-finding board has until April 5 to make its report. The president said he believes its members will speed their decision. When the board reported he would take any action that was necessary under the law.

After the board reported, the government could go to the courts and ask an order halting the strike. The Taft-Hartley law reported drafting new coal saving orders.

Federal officials still hoped the United Mine Workers chief would call his 400,000 soft-coal diggers back to work before the shortage becomes acute.

Producers' Rate Of Gas Studied

CALGARY, March 25. — (CP) — The Canadian Natural Gas Company of Calgary has intimated it would submit further evidence on the matter of increasing the producers' price of Turner Valley natural gas, M. Blackstock, chairman of the Gas Conservation Board, was told Wednesday.

The board resumed hearing an application from gas producers asking that their price be increased from three cents to six cents a thousand cubic feet.

SWEDEN WILL PAY OFF LOUIS WITH ICE SKATES

LONDON, March 25.—(BUP)—Heavyweight champion Joe Louis will be paid off with 2,500 pairs of ice skates for two exhibition appearances in Sweden, April 2 and 4, his publicity manager, Irwin Rosee, said Wednesday.

Rosee said that Louis already has arranged to sell the skates —which are worth about $9 (?) —to a Canada Swedish shoe manufacturing firm, thus overcoming Sweden's ban on the export of currency. Louis will have to pay a 15 per cent import duty to bring the skates into the United States.

Increased Wages Offered B.C. Miners

NANAIMO, B.C., March 25.—(CP)—Efforts of Mayor George Muir and the Nanaimo city council to aid in settlement of the lengthy Vancouver Island coal mine strike yesterday brought a new wage increase offer from Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir) Limited.

The offer was made at a meeting here between H. R. Plommer, manager of Canadian Collieries, and Mayor Muir. Its terms have been telegraphed to district 18 officials of the United Mine Workers of America, Calgary, who are asked to whether a vote on the proposal will be ordered.

Under the new proposal, the 1,300 Vancouver Island miners would receive immediate increase of $1.50 a day. In addition they would receive another 60 cents a day increase when production in the mines increases to 2½ tons per man per day.

Company officials said the production rate in Vancouver Island mines has been 1.7 tons a day per man, compared with four tons per day per man in Alberta. Island mining is more difficult.

Big Three Meeting Urged by Laborites

LONDON, March 25.—(AP)—Sixteen labor members of Parliament called today for a meeting soon of President Truman and prime ministers Attlee and Stalin.

They submitted a resolution to that effect to the house of commons in view of "the rapidly deteriorating political situation in Europe."

The labor members said they welcomed a recent statement by Prime Minister Jan Smuts of South Africa that a new effort should be made to reach an understanding with the Soviet Union.

WRENCH AS WEAPON MAY PROVE COSTLY

Unorthodox use of a monkey wrench to settle an argument may be very costly to Mrs. Barbara Polonuk, 10253 95 street.

Thursday a statement of claim was filed by the law firm of Maclean and Dunne on behalf of Jean Warren seeking $5,650 damages for injuries received when struck over the head by Mrs. Polonuk with a monkey wrench and a bottle.

It is alleged by the plaintiff, who rents a room in Bowen block, operated by the defendant's husband, that on October 17, 1947 Mrs. Polonuk committed a brutal and unprovoked assault on her person.

She alleges permanent injury, and also that resulting from the assault she lost her employment.

Oil World Situation In Food Improves

Europe Production Still Lags; Canadian Industrial Index Up

By The Canadian Press

Noting a turn for the better in the world food situation, the current monthly commercial letter of the Canadian Bank of Commerce nevertheless states that it is doubtful whether such alone can solve the serious food difficulties of recent years.

"Before the war continental Europe was noted for its high overall yields from intensive cultivation, good seed and extensive use of fertilizers.

"Adequate labor, quality seed and fertilizers are still lacking in that area and until these shortages are overcome pre-war yields will not again be recorded. Moreover, boundry readjustments have involved large transfer of agricultural populations, resulting in the abandonment of considerable areas of good land.

"Further, despite the estimated world population has increased by 200,000,000 or 10 per cent, in the last decade."

Stating that winter wheat is the major variety grown in the United States and Europe, the report comments that, in general, favorable condition can, however, change rapidly before the harvest period in June and July."

INDUSTRIAL INDEX

The bank's index of industrial activity for February was 156 (1937 equals 100), up one point from February last year, but down five points from the peacetime high of 161 in December, and from 157 in January.

"Influences of the same character as depressed the index in January continued to exert adverse influences in power service and import restrictions—were responsible for the February downturn. Automotive, iron and steel and textile products general groups again lost ground, but several others, food and beverages wearing apparel, wood products and non-ferrous metals, made slight gains.

"It is noteworthy that most of those industries which were able to increase their production slightly are the least dependent upon imported materials."

Demand Continues For Coarse Grains

WINNIPEG, March 25.—(CP)—Coarse grains showed a firm tone today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange as good offers and mill buying came into the oats and shipper demand into barley. Liberal offerings were well taken and prices closed near their high points of the session.

Rye futures attracted good demand in the nearby months, with commission houses and American interests most prominent. Offerings were liberal during the inactive trade but well absorbed. May and July both scored maximum 10-cent gains.

In the only export business reported, 770,000 bushels of wheat was allocated to the United Kingdom under the Canadian wheat agreement.

Class two wheat prices increased two cents from yesterday.

Massey-Harris Elects Director

TORONTO, March 25.—(CP)—M. W. McCutcheon of Toronto was elected a director of Massey-Harris Co., Ltd., at the company's annual meeting Wednesday, succeeding the late W. L. Bayer.

Mr. McCutcheon is managing director of Argus Corporation, Ltd.

J. S. Duncan, president said, continuing unprecedented demand for farm products and the financial ability of the individual farmer to purchase equipment, has resulted in accelerated production of farm implements on a basis never before experienced.

"This is true, not only in North America but in all other countries, and we believe it fair to state that in all countries there has been a change to enable them to purchase equipment which they require, the North American farm implement industry would have a backlog of requirements which could not be overtaken for many years."

Assuming that necessary financial assistance to the United Kingdom and other countries will be provided, Mr. Duncan looked forward to 1948 as another year of progress. "The increase in investment at the end of 1947 of $9,819,078 to a total of $42,625,754 should not be related to the sales of 1947 but to much greater sales anticipated in 1948."

Claxton Wants Dominion Forces Ready to Meet Any Emergency

OTTAWA, March 25.—(CP)—Defence Minister Claxton in the Commons yesterday called for recruits for the Canadian active and reserve services.

He said that the active and reserve forces are needed "so that we can be ready to meet any emergency and maintain the existence of our country and the freedom of our people, so that we shall continue to say what kind of life we want to lead."

FILL UP RANKS

The minister said he hoped that the effort to fill up the ranks "will have the support of all parties, of all veterans of the two wars and of the country as awhole."

In reply to a question he said that with respect to recruitment of the army "it is contemplated that it will be brought up to strength by March 31, 1949."

He did not have the dates for the navy and air force, but said they are "approximately the same."

FORCES' STRENGTH

Earlier, in a re-statement of the current and authorized strength of the armed forces, he said that at the end of February the strength was 34,276, representing 80 per cent of the authorized strength of 42,145.

He reiterated that the current recruiting campaign "has shown good results."

This year up to March 15, a total of 1,625 recruits were obtained, of which approximately half were for the army.

OTTAWA, March 25.—(CP)—Trade Minister Howe announced Wednesday in the Commons that an equalization payment of 3.623 cents a bushel will be made to prairie farmers who delivered oats during the 1946-47 crop year.

He said the payment cheques will be mailed to the firms which purchased the oats as soon as they can be written.

THREE-WEEK-OLD Dale Gabor, left, above, had stopped breathing for more than 30 minutes and was apparently dead in Cleveland's St. Alexis Hospital. But policemen Anton Plute and Edward Campbell, at the hospital on a routine assignment, brought the "dead" baby back to life. Plute and Campbell arrived. They used their ambulance resuscitator and within 15 minutes the baby was breathing again.

CANADIAN BABIES EXPENSIVE

Economically Desirable To "Live in Sin," Is Claim

OTTAWA, March 25.—(CP)—Babies born in Canada are expensive. They may be, if a Toronto professor is right, the most expensive babies in the world.

But it's not only babies. It's a matter of economic pressures, housing crises, taxes and lack of jobs for eligible men.

In fact, said Dr. John Morgan, associate professor of social work, University of Toronto, the economic pressures of family life "make it economically desirable to live in sin."

He addressed the regional welfare supervisors of the health department at their second annual conference Wednesday.

"It costs more to be born in Canada than anywhere else I know." Children are expensive to rear, feed, clothe, house and educate.

Housing was "one of our most serious social problems," and common to all parts of the western civilization.

Children do not enter productive employment until much higher ages than formerly, said Dr. Morgan, and the present industrial system discourages the employment of older persons. Hence the burden falls on young married people between the ages of 24 and 35.

But in the United Kingdom, for instance, things were brighter.

The health and welfare measures there currently being put into effect, along with wartime programs such as free milk and hot lunches for children in schools, pre-natal and post-natal clinics and special allowances for expectant mothers, were showing benefits.

The benefits showed in higher birthrates, lower mortality rates and healthier, heavier and more intelligent children, said Dr. Morgan. He pointed, however, against over-protection of children as a possible danger to the family unit.

"Social Freedom" was being achieved in the United Kingdom by the current British moves toward social security.

This concept may be the beginning of an idea which easily might be used to fight the Communists' way of life, he said.

Blast Kills Three, Injures Fourteen

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 25.—(AP)—Three men were killed and 14 injured last night when they were trapped by a slippage of hot coke from a furnace at the Bethlehem Steel Corp. works.

The company declined to give the names of the men killed and injured. A spokesman said the accident happened while one of the furnaces was being blown out preparatory to being shut down. He explained the hot coke slipped out of the tuyere (pipe) and spread around the furnace, trapping the men.

Witnesses said the flash from the hot coke could be seen 20 miles.

Temperance Act Passed by P.E.I.

CHARLOTTETOWN, March 25.—(CP)—The Prince Edward Island legislature rose early today after a prorogation session which passed a temperance act.

The temperance act, the last item of business in the meeting, will become effective if authorized by a plebiscite next June, despite attempts to have it become effective immediately.

It had been expected that the temperance act, which will replace a prohibition act but will not increase liquor consumption, would be brought back into committee for another effort to effect immediate enactment.

AID PLAN SPEEDING RED MILITARY MOVES

PARIS, March 25.—(CP)—Russia's "timetable" has been speeded up by the Marshall Plan and she would not refrain from any political act because it might involve military action, Irving J. Brown, European representative of the American Federation of Labor, told the Anglo-American Press Association Wednesday.

Declaring the Marshall Plan had expelled all the "hot air" from Moscow's foreign policy and left only "terror" Brown said:

"We must be forced to say that Russia is preparing or is prepared for military action. Her timetable has been speeded up. Her estimate of Western economic strength and power is magnified but successful achievement of her objectives now is more in doubt."

Isley Warns B.C. Electors

VANCOUVER, March 25.—(CP)—The "march of Communism all over the world" brought a warning from Justice Minister Ilsley in an address here.

Speaking at Liberal party nominating convention for Vancouver Centre Wednesday night, he warned Canadians to beware of Communism.

Canadian Communists "are not loyal Canadian citizens." They owe allegiance to a foreign power.

He linked some CCF followers—the members of the left wing of the party—with Communism.

"I am not saying the CCF is a Communist party," said Mr. Ilsley. "But the CCF has a left wing with a large number of fellow travellers so near to Communism that if there is serious trouble here, such as in Czechoslovakia, you will find them doing the same things as the left wing Socialists did in Czechoslovakia—go over to the Communists."

He condemned the "disloyalty" of all adherents to Communism in Canada.

"With what may be a crisis developing in the world we have these Canadian Communists—the LPP party—jubilant over the seizure of Czechoslovakia. It even sent a message to the new government of that little nation, congratulating it on the coup."

A "robust Canadianism" is needed to curb the threat of Communism in the Dominion.

Turk. Official Dies

ANKARA, March 25.—(AP)—Halit Nazmi Cheshmir, 52, Turkey's finance minister since 1946, died Wednesday night.

Free Wheat Marketing Is Said in Danger

BRANDON, Man., March 25.—(CP)—Stanley N. Jones, president of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, last night warned that the freedom of wheat marketing today is in deadly danger, with the alternative of state socialism, regimentation and coercion.

In an address at the annual meeting of the Manitoba branch of the Retail Merchants' Association of Canada, he said "wheat marketing is today a state monopoly under complete and absolute governmental control, and not later than last Friday night a further step towards Socialism was taken.

(He apparently was referring to the coarse grain legislation now before parliament.)

RAPS "CHEAP WHEAT"

Mr. Jones also condemned the government's "setting up a state monopoly to supply Britain with cheap wheat."

He termed this "the biggest piece of misdirection in recorded history, which as is now evident has put agriculture in bondage to the state.

"There are those who, in the name of stabilization and cooperation, have achieved the establishment of state monopoly, a compulsory wheat board to which every grower of wheat and flax is compelled to sell his products at such time, such price and on such terms as fixed by the planners . . . with the penalty for failure so to do, the loss of liberty.

Attempts to break away from this economic strait-jacket brings a visit from the RCMP and even now, tonight, the farmer is threatened with further extension of state control over his affairs, the taking over of his oats and barley," Mr. Jones said.

He advised those who speak of gambling on the exchange "their plain duty to report this breach to a law officer."

The supreme court of Canada in 1929 upheld the legality of "future contract" transactions and such trading is not an offence under section 321 of the criminal code, which deals with gambling, Mr. Jones said.

SHIP VANISHES, LISTED MISSING

LONDON, March 25.—(AP)—Fifty-one days ago the freighter Samkey, bound for Cuba out of London, radioed she was north of the Azores. Nothing has been heard since.

Last night Lloyd's officially listed the 7,219-ton ship with a crew of 43 aboard as missing.

The Samkey was owned by the New Zealand shipping company.

Tax-Slashing Bill Goes to Truman

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(AP)—The House of Representatives yesterday passed the $4,800,000,000 tax-slashing bill, sending it to President Truman.

The measure cuts taxes for all the $2,000,000 income tax payers and drops 7,400,000 low income persons from the tax rolls. Truman is expected to veto the bill quickly, perhaps with a message citing needs for more billions for military preparedness in the drive to stop Communism.

The question then will be whether the bill's backers in Congress can put it into law over his veto. It takes a two-thirds vote in both Senate and House to do that.

That test may come some time next week.

Conciliation Board Hears Rail Briefs

MONTREAL, March 25.—(CP)—A conciliation board dealing with a wage dispute between three Canadian railways and the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employes and other transport workers opened here yesterday.

The board, under chairman Mr. Justice J. C. A. Cameron, heard briefs presented by Sam Brown, representing the union, and Paul Smith, KC, representing the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Canadian National Railways and Ontario Northland Railways.

The brotherhood is asking a 35-cent-an-hour wage boost; improved rules dealing with statutory holidays, allowance for time lost on account of illness; union security and dues checkoff; and an additional wage increase for classified laborers.

Mr. Justice Cameron was also chairman of a conciliation board which heard the case of 18 railway brotherhoods, representing 122,000 workers ,who also asked a 35-cent-an-hour wage increase.

Hearings of this board concluded three weeks ago when a report was forwarded to Labor Minister Mitchell, but no announcement has come from Ottawa as yet.

Liberal Candidate Chosen at Coast

VANCOUVER, March 25.—(CP)—R. O. Campney, Vancouver lawyer and former secretary to Prime Minister Mackenzie King, last night was chosen Liberal candidate for Vancouver-Centre riding in the forthcoming federal by-election.

Officials at the Vancouver Liberal Association convention declined to announce voting figures but said Mr. Campney was elected "by a substantial majority" in the first ballot over opponents Ald. Alice Wilkinson, city attorney, and Aubrey Peck, local business man.
